⁴ Added by P. O. No. 14 of 1985, Art. 2 and Sch.,

(2) The Commissioner shall not be removed from office except in the manner prescribed in Article 209 for the removal from office of a Judge and, in the application of the Article for the purposes of this clause, any reference in that Article to a Judge shall be construed as a reference to the Commissioner.

(3) The Commissioner may, by writing under his hand addressed to the President, resign his office.

216. Commissioner not to hold office of profit.—(1) The Commissioner shall not—

- (a) hold any other office of profit in the service of Pakistan; or
- (b) occupy any other position carrying the right to remuneration for the rendering of services.

(2) A person who has held office as Commissioner shall not hold any office of profit in the service of Pakistan before the expiration of two years after he has ceased to hold that office:

Provided that—

- (a) this clause shall not be construed as preventing a person who was a Judge of the Supreme Court or of a High Court immediately before his appointment as Commissioner from resuming his duties as such Judge on the expiration of his term as Commissioner; and
- (b) a person who has held office as Commissioner may, with the concurrence of both Houses, be reappointed to that office before the expiration of two years after he has ceased to hold that office.

217. Acting Commissioner.—At any time when—

- (a) the office of Commissioner is vacant, or
- (b) the Commissioner is absent or is unable to perform the functions of his office due to any other cause, a Judge of the Supreme Court nominated by the Chief Justice of Pakistan shall act as Commissioner.

SECOND SCHEDULE

[Article 41(3)]

ELECTION OF PRESIDENT

1. The Chief Election Commissioner shall hold and conduct election to the office of President, and shall be the Returning Officer for such election.

2. The Chief Election Commissioner shall appoint Presiding Officers to preside at the meeting of the members of Majlis-e-Shoora (Parliament) and at the meetings of the members of the Provincial Assemblies.

3. The Chief Election Commissioner shall by public notification fix the time and place for depositing nomination papers, holding a scrutiny, making withdrawals, if any, and holding the poll, if necessary.

4. At any time before noon on the day fixed for nomination any member of the Majlis-e-Shoora (Parliament) or of a Provincial Assembly may nominate for election as President a person qualified for election as President by delivering to the Presiding Officer a nomination paper, signed by himself as proposer and by another member of the Majlis-e-Shoora (Parliament) or, as the case may be Assembly as seconder, together with a statement signed by the person nominated that he consents to the nomination:

Provided that no person shall subscribe, whether as proposer or as seconder, more than one nomination paper at any one election.

5. The scrutiny shall be held by the Chief Election Commissioner at the time and place fixed by him, and if after scrutiny only one person remains validly nominated, the Chief Election Commissioner shall declare that person to be elected, or if more than one person remains validly nominated, he shall announce, by public notification, the names of the persons validly nominated, to be hereinafter called the candidates.

6. A candidate may withdraw his candidature at any time before noon on the day fixed for this purpose by delivering a notice in writing under his hand to the Presiding Officer with whom his nomination paper has been deposited, and a candidate who has given a notice of withdrawal of his candidature under this paragraph shall not be allowed to cancel that notice.

7. If all but one of the candidates have withdrawn, that one shall be declared by the Chief Election Commissioner to be elected.

8. If there is no withdrawal, or if, after withdrawals have taken place, two or more candidates are left, the Chief Election Commissioner shall announce by public notification the names of the candidates, and their proposers and seconders, and shall proceed to hold a poll by secret ballot in accordance with the provisions of the succeeding paragraphs.

9. If a candidate whose nomination has been found to be in order dies after the time fixed for nomination, and a report of his death is received by the Presiding Officer before the commencement of the poll, the Presiding Officer shall, upon, being satisfied of the fact of the death of the candidate, countermand the poll and report the fact to the Chief Election Commissioner, and all proceedings with reference to the election shall be commenced a new in all respects as if for a new election:

Provided that no further nomination shall be necessary in the case of a candidate whose nomination was valid at the time of the countermanding of the poll:

Provided further that no person who has under paragraph 6 of this Schedule given notice of withdrawal of his candidature before the countermanding of the poll shall be ineligible for being nominated as a candidate for the election after such countermanding.

10. The poll shall be taken at the meetings of Majlis-e-Shoora (Parliament) and of each Provincial Assembly, and the respective Presiding Officers shall conduct the poll with the assistance of such officers as they may, with the approval of the Chief Election Commissioner, respectively appoint.

11. A ballot paper shall be issued to every member of Majlis-e-Shoora (Parliament), and of each Provincial Assembly, who presents himself for voting at the meeting of the members of the Majlis-e-Shoora (Parliament) or, as the case may be, of the Provincial Assembly of which he is a member (hereinafter referred to as a person voting), and he shall exercise his vote personally by marking the paper in accordance with the provisions of the succeeding paragraphs.

12. The poll shall be by secret ballot by means of ballot papers containing the names of all the candidates in alphabetical order who have not withdrawn, and a person voting shall vote by placing a mark against the name of the person for whom he wishes to vote.

13. Ballot papers shall be issued from a book of ballot papers with counterfoils, each counterfoil being numbered; and when a ballot paper is issued to a person voting his name shall be entered on the counterfoil, and the ballot paper shall be authenticated by the initials of the Presiding Officer.

14. A ballot paper having been marked by the person voting shall be deposited by that person in a ballot box to be placed in front of the Presiding Officer.

15. If a ballot paper is spoiled by a person voting he may return it to the Presiding Officer, who shall issue a second ballot paper, canceling the first ballot paper and marking the cancellation on the appropriate counterfoil.

16. A ballot paper shall be invalid if:—

- (i) there is upon it any name, word or mark, by which the person voting may be identified; or
- (ii) it does not contain the initials of the Presiding Officer; or
- (iii) it does not contain a mark; or
- (iv) a mark is placed against the names of two or more candidates; or
- (v) there is any uncertainty as to the identity of the candidate against whose name the mark is placed.

17. After the close of the poll each Presiding Officer shall, in the presence of such of the candidates or their authorized representatives as may desire to be present, open and empty the ballot boxes and examine the ballot papers therein, rejecting any which are invalid, count the number of votes recorded for each candidate on the valid ballot papers, and communicate the number of the votes so recorded to the Chief Election Commissioner.

18. (1) The Chief Election Commissioner shall determine the result of the election in the following manner, namely:

- (a) the number of votes cast in the Majlis-e-Shoora (Parliament) in favor of each candidate shall be counted;
- (b) the number of votes cast in a Provincial Assembly in favor of each candidate shall be multiplied by the total number of seats in the Provincial Assembly for the time being having the smallest number of seats and divided by the total number of seats in the Provincial Assembly in which the votes have been cast; and
- (c) the number of votes calculated in the manner referred to in clause (b) shall be added to the number of votes counted under clause (a).

Explanation.—In this paragraph, “total number of seats” includes seats reserved for non-Muslims and women.

(2) A fraction shall be rounded off to the nearest whole.

19. The candidate who has obtained the largest number of votes compiled in the manner specified in paragraph 18 shall be declared by the Chief Election Commissioner to be elected.

20. Where at any poll any two or more candidates obtain an equal number of votes, the selection of the candidate to be elected shall be by drawing of lots.

21. When, after any poll, the counting of the votes has been completed, and the result of the voting determined, the Chief Election Commissioner shall forthwith announce the result to those present, and shall report the result to the Federal Government, who shall forthwith cause the result to be declared by a public notification.

22. The Chief Election Commissioner may, by public notification, with the approval of the President, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Schedule.

THE ELECTION COMMISSION ORDER, 2002

(CHIEF EXECUTIVE'S ORDER NO. 1 OF 2002)

In pursuance of the Proclamation of Emergency of the fourteenth day of October, 1999, read with the Provisional Constitution Order No. 1 of 1999, and in exercise of all powers enabling him in that behalf, the Chief Executive of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan is pleased to make and promulgate the following Order :—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Order may be called the Election Commission Order, 2002.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. Chief Election Commissioner.—(1) There shall be a Chief Election Commissioner, hereinafter referred to as the Commissioner, who shall be appointed by the President, in his discretion, for a term of three years.

(2) As provided in clause (2) of Article 213 of the Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973, no person shall be appointed to be Commissioner unless he is, or has been, a Judge of the Supreme Court or is, or has been, a Judge of High Court and is qualified under paragraph (a) of clause (2) of Article 177 of the Constitution to be appointed a Judge of the Supreme Court.

(3) The Commissioner shall have such powers and functions as are conferred on him by this Order and the law.

(4) The Commissioner may, by writing under his hand addressed to the President, resign his office.

3. Commissioner's oath of office.—Before entering upon office, the Commissioner shall make before the Chief Justice of Pakistan oath in the form set-out in the Schedule.

4. Acting Commissioner.—At any time when—

(a) the office of Commissioner is vacant, or

(b) the Commissioner is absent or is unable to perform the functions of his office due to any other cause, a Judge of the Supreme Court nominated by the Chief Justice of Pakistan shall act as Commissioner.

5. Election Commission.—(1) For the purpose of the general election to the National Assembly and to a Provincial Assembly, and for the purpose of election to the Senate, an Election Commission shall be constituted in accordance with this Article.

(2) The Election Commission shall consist of—

- (a) The Commissioner, who shall be Chairman of the Commission ; and
- (b) four members, each of whom shall be a Judge of the High Court of each Province, appointed by the President after consultation with the Chief Justice of the High Court concerned and with the Commissioner.

(3) It shall be the duty of the Election Commission constituted in relation to an election to organize and conduct the election and to make such arrangements as are necessary to ensure that the election is conducted honestly, justly, fairly and in accordance with law, and that corrupt practices are guarded against.

6. Powers of Election Commission.—(1) The Election Commission shall have power to issue such directions or orders as may be necessary for the performance of its functions and duties, including an order doing complete justice in any matter pending before it and an order for the purpose of securing the attendance of any person or the discovery or production of any document.

(2) Any such direction or order shall be enforceable throughout Pakistan and shall be executed as if it had been issued by the High Court.

7. Duties of Commissioner.—The Commissioner shall be charged with the duty of—

- (a) organizing and conducting election to fill casual vacancies in the National Assembly, the Senate or a Provincial Assembly ; and
- (b) appointing Election Tribunals.

¹[7A. Application of certain laws etc.—(1) Subject to this Order and any Order, from time to time, made by the Chief Executive, the provisions of Part VIII of the Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan and all electoral laws, Orders, Acts, Ordinances and regulations, rules, notifications and instructions made or issued thereunder for the time being in force and amended from time to time shall form part of this Order.

¹Inserted vide C.E.O. No. 8 of 2002, dt. 27-2-2002.

(2) All electoral laws, Orders, Acts, Ordinances and regulations, rules, notifications and instructions made or issued thereunder for the time being in force and amended from time to time shall apply to the preparation and revision of electoral rolls and delimitation of constituencies and all other matters which may be necessary for the purpose of conducting elections to both Houses of Parliament and to the Provincial Assemblies.

(3) The reference to the Commissioner or the Election Commission in Part VIII and other Articles of the Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan and all electoral laws, orders, Acts, Ordinances and regulations, rules, notifications and instructions made or issued thereunder for the time being in force shall be construed as reference to the Commissioner or the Election Commission appointed or constituted under this Order, as the case may be.

7B. Officers and servants.—The officers and servants employed in connection with the functions of the Commissioner or the Election Commission immediately before the commencement of this Order shall be deemed to be the officers and servants employed in connection with the functions of the Commissioner or the Election Commission appointed or constituted under this order on the same terms and conditions and subject to the same rules as were applicable to them until altered, modified or amended by the Commissioner.]

8. Decisions of Commission, etc.—(1) All decisions of the Election Commission shall be expressed in terms of the opinion of the majority of its members, including the Chairman.

(2) No election conducted, or other action taken or thing done, by the Election Commission shall be invalid or called in question only on the ground of the existence of a vacancy therein or of the absence of any member from any meeting thereof.

9. Executive authorities to assist Commission etc.—It shall be the duty of all executive authorities in the Federation and in the Provinces to assist the Commissioner and the Election Commission in the discharge of his or their functions.

¹Inserted vide C.E.O. No. 8 of 2002, dt. 27-2-2002.

(2) The Election Commission may require the Commissioner or any of its members to exercise and perform all or any of its powers and functions under this Order.

9B. Directions of Commission in certain matters.—Anything required to be done for carrying out the purposes of this Order, for which no provision or no sufficient provision exists shall be done by such authority and in such manner as the Election Commission may direct.

9C. Bar of Jurisdiction.—No Court shall question the legality of any action taken in good faith by or under the authority of the Commission, the Commissioner, a Returning Officer, Presiding Officer or an Assistant Presiding Officer or any decision given by any of them or any other officer or authority appointed under this order or the rules.

9D. Protection of actions taken in good faith.—No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Election Commission, the Commissioner or any officer or other person in respect of anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under or in pursuance of this Order or of any rule or Order made or any direction given thereunder.

9E. Power to make rules.—The Commissioner may, with the approval of the President, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Order.

9F. Removal of difficulties.—If any difficulty arises in giving effect to any of the provisions of this Order, the President may make such provision for the removal of the difficulty as he may deem fit.]

10. Repeal.—The Extension in the term of Chief Election Commissioner Order, 2000 (Chief Executive's Order No. 9 of 2000), is hereby repealed.

THE POLITICAL PARTIES ORDER, 2002

(CHIEF EXECUTIVE'S ORDER NO. 18 OF 2002)

WHEREAS it is intended to create a political environment conducive to the promotion of a federal ¹[] democratic system as enshrined in the Constitution;

AND WHEREAS political parties play a pivotal role in fostering a constitutional, federal democratic political culture;

AND WHEREAS the practice of democracy within the political parties will promote democratic governance in the country for sustaining democracy;

AND WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the formation and regulation of political parties;

AND WHEREAS it is essential to revise, consolidate and re-enact the law relating to political parties and matters connected therewith and incidental thereto;

AND WHEREAS the Chief Executive is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary to take immediate action;

NOW, THEREFORE, in pursuance of the Proclamation of Emergency of the fourteenth day of October, 1999, and the Provisional Constitution Order No. 1 of 1999, and in exercise of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, the Chief Executive of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan is pleased to make and promulgate the following Order :—

CHAPTER-I

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Order may be called the Political Parties Order, 2002.

(2) It extends to the whole of Pakistan ²[,except the Federally Administered Tribal Areas].

(3) It shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions.—In this Order, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) “Chief Election Commissioner” means the Chief Election Commissioner of Pakistan ;

¹Omitted vide C.E.O. No. 20 of 2002, dt. 22-7-2002.

² Added vide CEO No. 28 of 2002, dt.,5-10-02.

- (b) “Election Commission” means the Election Commission of Pakistan;
- (c) “foreign-aided political party” means a political party which—
 - (i) has been formed or organised at the instance of any government or political party of a foreign country; or
 - (ii) is affiliated to or associated with any government or political party of a foreign country; or
 - (iii) receives any aid, financial or otherwise, from any government or political party of a foreign country, or any portion of its funds from foreign nationals;
- (d) “political party” means an association of citizens or a combination or groups of such associations formed with a view to propagating or influencing political opinion and participating in elections for any elective public office or for membership of a legislative body; and
- (e) “prescribed” means prescribed by rules made under this Order.

CHAPTER-II

FORMATION OF POLITICAL PARTIES

3. Formation of political parties, etc.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Order, it shall be lawful for any body of individuals or association of citizens to form, organize, continue or set-up a political party.

(2) A political party shall have a distinct identity of its structures at the national, provincial and local levels, wherever applicable.

(3) Every political party shall have a distinct name.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), a political party shall not—

- (a) propagate any opinion, or act in a manner prejudicial to the fundamental principles enshrined in the Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan; or
- (b) undermine the sovereignty or integrity of Pakistan, public order or public morality or indulge in terrorism; or
- (c) promote sectarian, regional or provincial hatred or, animosity; or

- (e) impart any military or para-military training to its members or other persons; or
- (f) be formed, organise, set-up or convened as a foreign-aided political party.

4. Constitution of political parties.—(1) Every political party, including a political party already in existence, shall formulate its constitution, with whatever name it may be referred, including, inter alia,—

- (a) the aims and objectives of the party;
- (b) organisational structure of the party at the Federal, Provincial and local levels, whichever applicable;
- (c) criteria of membership of the party;
- (d) membership fee, to be paid by the members;
- (e) qualifications and tenure of the party leader and other office-bearers of the party;
- (f) criteria for receipt and collection of funds for the party; and
- (g) procedure for—
 - (i) election of party leader and other office-bearers at the Federal, Provincial and local levels, wherever applicable;
 - (ii) selection or nomination of party candidates for election to public offices and legislative bodies;
 - (iii) resolution of disputes between members and party, including issues relating to suspension and expulsion of members; and

(iv) method and manner of amendments in the constitution of the party.

(2) Every political party shall provide a copy of its constitution to the Election Commission.

(3) Any change in the constitution of a political party shall forthwith be communicated to the Election Commission which shall maintain updated record of the constitutions of all the political parties.

5. Membership of political parties.—(1) Every citizen, not being in the service of Pakistan, shall have the right to form or be a member of a political party or be otherwise associated with a political party or take part in political activities or be elected as an office-bearer of a political party:

Provided that a person shall not be appointed or serve as an office-bearer of a political party if he is not qualified to be, or is disqualified from being, elected or chosen as a member of the Majlis-e-Shoora (Parliament) under Article 63 of the Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan or under any other law for the time being in force:

¹[Provided further that the condition of educational qualification being a graduate possessing a bachelor degree or equivalent laid down for a member of Majlis-e-Shoora (Parliament) or a Provincial Assembly shall not be applicable to an office-bearer of a political party.]

(2) Where a person joins a political party, his name shall be duly entered in the record of the political party as a member and shall be issued a membership card, or any other document showing his membership of such political party.

(3) A person shall not be a member of more than one political party at a time.

(4) A member of a political party shall have the right of access to the records of the political party.

¹Added vide C.E.O. No. 20 of 2002, dt. 22-7-2002.

6. Membership fee and contributions.—(1) A member of a political party shall be required to pay a membership fee as provided in the party’s constitution and may, in addition, make voluntary contributions towards the party’s funds.

(2) The contribution made by members or supporters of any party shall be duly recorded by the political parties.

(3) Any contribution made, directly or indirectly, by any foreign government, multi-national or domestically incorporated public or private company, firm, trade or professional association shall be prohibited and the parties may accept contributions and donations only from individuals.

(4) Any contribution or donation which is prohibited under this Order shall be confiscated in favour of the State in the manner as may be prescribed.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section, a “contribution or donation” includes a contribution or donation made in cash, kind, stocks, hospitality, accommodation, transport, fuel and provision of other such facilities.

7. Suspension or expulsion of a member.—A member of a political party may be suspended or expelled from the party’s membership in accordance with the procedure provided in the party’s constitution:

Provided that before making an order for suspension or expulsion of a member from the party, such member shall be provided with a reasonable opportunity to show cause against the action proposed and of hearing.

8. Selection for elective offices.—The political parties shall make the selection of candidates for elective offices, including the membership of the Majlis-e-Shoora (Parliament) and Provincial Assemblies, through a transparent democratic procedure.

10. Functioning of political parties.—(1) Every political party shall have an elected general council at the Federal, Provincial and local levels, wherever applicable, and by whatever names these may be referred.

(2) Every political party shall, at least once in a year, convene a general meeting at the Federal, Provincial and local levels of the party, wherever applicable, to which the party members or their delegates shall be invited to participate.

¹Omitted vide Act No. III of 2004, dt. 31-7-2004.

(3) A member or group of members of the political party may nominate in writing any other member of the party as a delegate to represent him or them and cast his or their votes in a party meeting.

11. Elections within a political party.—(1) The party leader and other office-bearers of every political party at the Federal, Provincial and local levels, wherever applicable, shall be elected periodically in accordance with party's constitution through secret ballot based on a democratic and transparent system:

Provided that a period, not exceeding four years, shall intervene between any two elections.

(2) Every member of the political party shall, subject to the provisions of the party's constitution, be provided with an equal opportunity of contesting election for any party office, including that of the party leader.

(3) All members of the political party at the Federal, Provincial and local levels shall constitute the electoral college for election of the party general council at the respective levels.

12. Certification by the political party.—(1) The party leader of each political party shall, within seven days from completion of the intra-party elections submit a certificate under his signatures to the Election Commission to the effect that the elections were held in accordance with the constitution of the party and this Order to elect the party leader and other office-bearers at the Federal, Provincial and local levels, wherever applicable.

(2) The certificate referred to in clause (1) shall contain information in respect of —

- (a) the date of the last intra-party elections;
- (b) the names, designations and addresses of the party leader and all other office-bearers elected at the Federal, Provincial and local levels, wherever applicable;
- (c) the election results, including the total number of votes cast and the number of votes secured by each contestant for all of its party offices; and
- (d) copy of the party's notifications declaring the results of the election.

(3) The Election Commission shall publish for public information the certificate including details of elections referred to in clause (2).

13. Information about the sources of party's fund.—(1) Every political party shall, in such manner and in such form as may be prescribed or specified by the Chief Election Commissioner, submit to the Election Commission, within sixty days from the close of each financial year, a consolidated statement of accounts of the party audited by a Chartered Accountant containing—

- (a) annual income and expenses;
- (b) sources of its funds; and
- (c) assets and liabilities.

(2) The statement referred to in clause (1), shall be accompanied by a certificate signed by the party leader stating that—

- (a) no funds from any source prohibited under this Order were received by the party; and
- (b) the statement contains an accurate financial position of the party.

14. Eligibility of party to obtain election symbol.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, a political party shall be eligible to obtain an election symbol for contesting elections for Majlis-e-Shoora (Parliament) and Provincial Assemblies on submission of certificates and statement referred to in Articles 12 and 13:

Provided that a combination of political parties shall be entitled to obtain a common election symbol for such election only if, each party constituting such combination, submits the certificates and statement referred to in Articles 12 and 13.

(2) Where any political party or a combination of political parties, severally or collectively, contravenes the provisions of Article 12 or 13, it shall not be entitled to obtain an election symbol for election to the Majlis-e-Shoora (Parliament) or the Provincial Assemblies, and the Election Commission shall not allocate an election symbol to such party or, as the case may be, the combination of political parties for such election.

CHAPTER-III

DISSOLUTION OF POLITICAL PARTIES

15. Dissolution of a political party.—(1) Where the Federal Government is satisfied that a political party is a foreign-aided party or has been formed or is operating in a manner prejudicial to the sovereignty or integrity of Pakistan or is indulging in terrorism, it shall make such declaration by a notification in the official Gazette.

(2) Within fifteen days of making a declaration under clause (1), the Federal Government shall refer the matter to the Supreme Court whose decision on such reference shall be final.

(3) Where the Supreme Court upholds the declaration made against a political party under clause (1), such party shall stand dissolved forthwith.

16. Effects of Dissolution of political party.—(1) Where a political party is dissolved under Article 15, any member of such political party, if he is a member of the Majlis-e-Shoora (Parliament) or a Provincial Assembly, shall be disqualified for the remaining term to be a member of the Majlis-e-Shoora (Parliament) or as the case may be, the Provincial Assembly, unless before the final decision of the Supreme Court, he resigns from the membership of the party and publicly announces his disassociation with such political party.

(2) A person becoming disqualified from being a member of the Majlis-e-Shoora (Parliament) or Provincial Assembly under clause (1) shall not participate in election for any elective office or any legislative body till the expiry of four years from the date of his disqualification from being a member of the Majlis-e-Shoora (Parliament) or, as the case may be, the Provincial Assembly.

(3) The order of members of a political party becoming disqualified from being members of Majlis-e-Shoora (Parliament) or the Provincial Assembly on its dissolution shall be notified in the official Gazette.

CHAPTER-IV

MISCELLANEOUS

17. Intra-party elections for general elections, 2002.—(1) Every political party desiring to take part in general elections, 2002, shall be required to complete its intra-party elections referred to in Article 11 in accordance with the party constitution and this Order by the fifth day of August, 2002, and submit the certificate referred to in Article 12 accordingly.

(2) A political party which has already completed intra-party elections, as far as possible, according to the requirements of Article 11, before the commencement of this Order shall submit a certificate to the Election Commission in accordance with Article 12.

(3) A party not complying with the provisions of clause (1) and (2) shall not be allotted election symbol for the general elections, 2002.

18. Code of conduct of political parties.—The Election Commission shall in consultation with the political parties, prepare and publish a code of conduct for the political parties.

19. Rules.—The Election Commission may, with approval of the ¹[President], make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Order.

20. Repeal.—The Political Parties Act, 1962 (III of 1962), is hereby repealed.

ELECTION COMMISSION OF PAKISTAN

NOTIFICATION

Islamabad, the 23rd July, 2002

S.R.O. 456(I)/2002.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Article 19 of the Political Parties Order, 2002 (Chief Executive’s Order No.18 of 2002), the Election Commission, with the approval of the President, is pleased to make the following rules:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Political Parties Rules, 2002.

(2) They shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions.—(1) In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) “Article” means an article of the Order;

(b) “Form” means a form appended to these rules;

(c) “Order” means the Political Parties Order, 2002 (Chief Executive’s Order No. 18 of 2002); and

(d) “Party Leader” means the head of a political party duly elected in accordance with the constitution of the political party and the provisions of the Order by whatever name designated.

(2) The words and expressions used but not defined herein shall have the meanings as assigned to them in the Order.

3. Political parties to provide printed copy of constitution.—
Every political party—

(a) within ten days of its formation; or

(b) which is already in existence, within ten days of the publication of these rules in the official Gazette, shall provide to the Election Commission a printed copy of its constitution along with a certificate duly attested by the Party Leader that its constitution is in conformity with the requirements of the Order.

4. Submission of statement of accounts.— Every political party shall maintain its accounts in the manner set-out in Form-I indicating its income and expenditure, sources of funds, assets and liabilities and shall, within sixty days from the close of each financial year (July—June), submit to the Election Commission a consolidated statement of accounts of the party audited by a Chartered Accountant, accompanied by a certificate, duly signed by the Party Leader to the effect that no funds from any source prohibited under the Order were received by the party and that the statement contains an accurate financial position of the party.

5. Financial transactions within a party.— All financial transactions within a party shall be entered in the statement of accounts submitted under rule 4.

6. Confiscation of prohibited funds.— Where the Election Commission decides that the contributions or donations, as the case may be, accepted by the political parties are prohibited under clause (3) of Article 6, it shall, subject to notice to the political party concerned and after giving an opportunity of being heard, direct the same to be confiscated in favour of the State to be deposited in Government Treasury or sub-Treasury in the following head of the account:—

“3000000-Deposits and Reserves-B-Not Bearing interest-

NOTIFICATION

Islamabad, the 5th August, 2002

S.R.O. 491 (I)/2002.—WHEREAS, clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 21 of the Representation of the People Act, 1976 provides that the Returning Officer shall allocate one of the prescribed symbols to each contesting candidate, subject to any direction of the Election Commission;

AND WHEREAS, Articles 14 and 17 of the ‘Political Parties Order, 2002 (Chief Executive’s Order No. 18 of 2002) provide for allocation of symbols to political parties by the Election Commission subject to the conditions laid therein;

AND WHEREAS, it is the duty of Election Commission to organize and conduct the forthcoming elections and to make such arrangements as are necessary to ensure that the elections are conducted honestly, justly, fairly and in accordance with law and the corrupt practices are guarded against.

AND WHEREAS, it is expedient, in the interest of fairness of elections, to provide for the allotment of symbols;

NOW, THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers conferred under Article 218 of the Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan, Article 7A of the Election Commission Order, 2002 section 21 of the Representation of the People Act, 1976 and all other powers enabling it in that behalf, the Election Commission is pleased to make the following Order for the forthcoming general elections.

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Order may be called the Allocation of Symbols Order, 2002.

(2) It shall come into force at once and applies for the forthcoming general elections.

(3) It extends to the whole of Pakistan.

2. Definitions .—(a) “political party” means an association of citizens or a combination or groups of such association formed with a view to propagating or influencing political opinion and participating in elections for any elective public office or for membership of a legislative body.

(b) The other definitions appearing in the Representation of the People Act, 1976, the rules framed there under, the Political Parties Order, 2002, the rules framed there under and the Election Commission Order, 2002 shall be applicable for the purpose of this Order.

3. Allotment of symbols .—(1) In every constituency where election is contested, a symbol shall be allotted to a contesting candidate in accordance with the provisions of this Order and different symbols shall be allocated to different candidates at an election in the same constituency.

(2) No symbol shall be allocated to any candidate outside the list of symbols prescribed under sub-rule (1) of rule 9 of the Representation of the People (Conduct of Election) Rules, 1977.

4. Classification of symbols .—For the purpose of this Order, symbols are classified as under:—

- (a) Symbols reserved for political parties; and
- (b) Symbols other than the reserved symbols

5. Application for symbol—Subject to fulfillment of the provisions of Political Parties Order, 2002 and the rules framed there under, a political party shall make an application to the Election Commission for allocation of a symbol of its choice within the period specified by the Commission in its press release, and it shall contain, —

- (a) the list of symbols applied for in order of preference;
- (b) symbol or symbols if any allocated to the political party during the previous general elections;
- (c) every such application shall be signed by the Party Leader, by whatever name designated;

- (e) any provision of rule 3 or sub-rule (1) of rule 4 has not been complied with; or
- (f) the same proposer or the seconder has subscribed to more than one nomination paper;

Provided that—

- (i) the rejection of a nomination paper shall not invalidate the nomination of a candidate by any other valid nomination paper;
- (ii) the Returning Officer shall not reject a nomination paper on the ground of any defect which is not of a substantial nature, and may allow such defect to be remedied forthwith; and
- (iii) the Returning Officer shall not enquire into the correctness or validity of any entry in the electoral roll, certified copy of which accompanies the nomination, or in the list of voters.

(4) The Returning Officer shall endorse on every nomination paper his decision accepting or rejecting it and shall, in the case of rejection, record a brief statement of reasons therefor.

(5) The decision of the Returning Officer accepting or rejecting a nomination paper shall be final.

(6) The Returning Officer shall draw up a list of candidates whose nominations have been accepted and publish it in Form II.

6. Withdrawal and retirement.—(1) A candidate who has been validly nominated may withdraw his candidature by a notice in writing in Form III duly signed by him and delivered to the Returning Officer or, in his absence, to the Officer of the Election Commission designated by him at any time before noon on the last day fixed for the purpose by the Returning Officer.

(2) After the Returning Officer has satisfied himself that the signature on the notice of withdrawal is that of the candidate concerned, he shall cause a copy of the notice to be affixed at some conspicuous place in his office.

(3) A candidate may retire from contesting election by a notice in writing signed by him and delivered to the Returning Officer on any day not later than three days before the polling day either by himself in person or by an authorized agent appointed by the candidate in writing in this behalf.

(4) The Returning Officer shall, upon receiving of notice of retirement under sub-rule (3), cause a copy thereof to be affixed at some conspicuous place in his office and also to be published in such manner as he may think fit.

(5) A person who gives notice of withdrawal under sub-rule (1) or for retirement from contesting election under sub-rule (3), shall not be allowed to cancel or withdraw such notice.

7. List of validly nominated candidates.—(1) Immediately after the expiry of the period fixed for withdrawals, the Returning Officer shall, by notification in the official Gazette, publish in Form IV the names of validly nominated candidates who have not withdrawn their candidature.

(2) The names in the list of validly nominated candidates shall be written in Urdu and shall be drawn up in alphabetical order in accordance with that language.

8. Uncontested election.—(1) When, as a result of scrutiny under rule 5 or as a result of withdrawal under rule 6, only one validly nominated candidate is left, the Returning Officer shall declare by public notice such candidate to be elected to the office of the President.

(2) The Returning Officer shall submit to the Federal Government a return of election for notification in the official Gazette.

9. Fixing place and time of polling.—If there are two or more validly nominated candidates who have not withdrawn, the Returning Officer shall—

- (a) inform the Speaker of the National Assembly and of each Provincial Assembly of the place, date, time and hours fixed for the poll; and
- (b) the Speaker shall summon Parliament to meet in a joint sitting, and the Speaker of a Provincial Assembly shall summon the Provincial Assembly to meet, at the place and time and on the date fixed for the purpose of taking the poll.

10. Appointment of Presiding and Polling Officers.—(1) The Returning Officer shall appoint a Presiding Officer to conduct the poll with the assistance of such officers as he may, with the approval of the Returning Officer appoint.

(2) The Presiding Officer shall conduct the poll in accordance with these rules and be responsible for maintaining order during the poll.

(3) The Returning Officer may, at any time during the poll, for reasons to be recorded in writing, suspend the Presiding Officer or any other officer and appoint another person to be the Presiding Officer or, as the case may be, other officer.

11. Ballot Paper.—(1) The Returning Officer shall supply sufficient number of ballot papers to the Presiding Officers.

(2) The names of the validly nominated candidates shall be printed on the ballot papers in Urdu in the alphabetical order in accordance with that language.

12. Ballot Boxes.—The Returning Officer shall provide the Presiding Officers with such number of ballot boxes approved by him as may be necessary.

13. List of voters.—(1) The Returning Officer shall provide the Presiding Officers with a list of voters entitled to vote at the poll.

(2) The list of voters shall be arranged in the alphabetical order showing separately the names of the members of the National Assembly and the Senate or, in the case of a Provincial Assembly, of that Assembly.

14. Identity cards.—(1) Every voter shall carry with him his identity card issued by the National Assembly Secretariat or, as the case may be, the Senate Secretariat or the Secretariat of the Provincial Assembly.

(2) Before receiving a ballot paper to cast his vote, a voter shall, if required for the purpose of proving his identity, produce his identity card before the Presiding Officer.

15. Appointment of an agent.—(1) A validly nominated candidate may, before the commencement of the poll, appoint not more than one agent for observing the poll and the count, and given notice thereof in writing to the Presiding Officer.

(2) The appointment of an agent under sub-rule (1) may at any time be revoked by the validly nominated candidate, and when it is so revoked, or the agent dies, such candidate may appoint another person to be an agent and given notice thereof in terms of sub-rule (1).

16. Absence of candidate, etc., not to invalidate acts, etc.—Where any act or thing is required or authorised to be done in the presence of a candidate or an agent, the failure of such person to attend at the time and place appointed for the purpose shall not invalidate any act or thing otherwise validly done.

17. Adjourned poll.—(1) If, at any time, the poll is interrupted or obstructed for reasons beyond the control of the Presiding Officer, he shall stop the poll and inform the Returning Officer that he has done so.

(2) Where a poll is stopped under sub-rule (1), the Returning Officer shall—

- (a) as soon as may be, appoint a day for a fresh poll; and
- (b) fix the place at which and the hours during which such fresh poll shall be taken.

(3) All voters shall be allowed to vote at the fresh poll under sub-rule (2) and no vote cast at the poll stopped under sub-rule (1) shall be counted.

18. Admission to the place of poll.—The Presiding Officer shall, subject to such instructions as the Returning Officer may give in this behalf, regulate the number of persons other than voters to be admitted to the place of poll and exclude therefrom all other persons except—

- (a) the polling officers or any other person on duty in connection with the poll;
- (b) the contesting candidates and one representative authorised in writing by each such candidate; and
- (c) such other persons as may generally or specifically be permitted by the Returning Officer.

19. Maintenance of order.—(1) Any person who fails to obey any lawful orders of the Presiding Officer may immediately, by order of the Presiding Officer, be removed from the place of the poll and the person so removed shall not, without the permission of the Presiding Officer, re-enter such place.

(2) The powers under sub-rule (1) shall not be so exercised as to deprive a voter otherwise entitled to vote of an opportunity to vote.

20. Procedure before commencement of the poll.—(1) Immediately before the commencement of the poll, the Presiding Officer shall—

- (a) ensure that the ballot box to be used is empty;
- (b) show the empty ballot box to such contesting candidates or their agents as may be present;

- (c) after the ballot box has been shown to be empty, close and seal it so that its slit is open; and
- (d) place the ballot box within his sight for the purpose of poll.

(2) If one ballot box is full or cannot further be used for receiving ballot papers, the Presiding Officer shall seal the ballot box and use another ballot box in the manner laid down in sub-rule (1).

(3) The Presiding Officer shall make arrangements so that every voter may be able to mark his ballot paper in secret before the same is folded and inserted in the ballot box.

21. Voting procedure.—(1) As soon as the poll commences, the Presiding Officer shall regulate the entry of voters in the alphabetical order of their names as entered in the lists of voters so that, at a time, only one voter enters the place reserved for marking ballot papers.

(2) When a voter presents himself to vote, the Presiding Officer shall, after satisfying himself as to the identity of the voter, give him a ballot paper.

(3) Before a ballot paper is issued to a voter—

- (a) a mark shall be placed on the list of voters against the name of the voter to indicate that the ballot paper has been issued to him;
- (b) the ballot paper shall, on its back, be stamped with the official mark and initialed by the Presiding Officer;
- (c) the voter shall put his signature or thumb impression on the counterfoil of the ballot paper; and
- (d) the voter shall, if so requested by any contesting candidate or his agent, show to him the official mark on the back of the ballot paper.

(4) The voter on receiving the ballot paper shall—

- (a) forthwith proceed to the place reserved for marking ballot papers;
- (b) secretly put on the ballot paper against the name of the contesting candidate of his choice one cross-mark and no other mark, with a copying pencil to be provided by the Presiding Officer and not with any other marking aid ; and

(c) after he has put the mark, fold the ballot paper and insert it in the ballot box without undue delay.

22. Voting by incapacitated voters.—(1) Where a voter is blind or is otherwise so incapacitated that he cannot vote without the assistance of a companion, the Presiding Officer shall allow him such assistance and, in case the disability is such that the voter cannot mark the ballot paper himself, the person accompanying the voter may mark the ballot paper as indicated by the latter:

Provided that the person allowed to accompany the voter shall not himself be a candidate or an agent of a candidate.

(2) If the ballot paper is to be marked by the companion, the Presiding Officer shall make it clear to him that he must mark the ballot paper for the candidate of the voter's choice and that he must maintain the secrecy of voting by not divulging to anyone the voter's choice of candidate.

(3) The Presiding Officer or a polling officer shall in no case mark the ballot paper on behalf of a blind or otherwise incapacitated voter.

23. Spoilt ballot paper.—(1) A voter who has inadvertently so spoilt his ballot paper that it cannot be used as a valid ballot paper may, upon proving the fact of inadvertence to the satisfaction of the Presiding Officer and returning the ballot paper to him, obtain another ballot paper and cast his vote by such other ballot paper.

(2) The Presiding Officer shall forthwith cancel the ballot paper returned to him under sub-rule (1), make a note to that effect on the counterfoil over his own signature and sign the cancelled ballot paper, and place it in a separate packet labeled Spoilt Ballot Papers.

24. Voting after close of poll.—No voter shall be given any ballot paper or be permitted to vote after the hours fixed for the close of poll, except the voters who at that hour are present within the building or room where the poll takes place and have not voted but are waiting to vote, including those who were called upon earlier to vote according to their turn by the Presiding Officer but were not present.

25. Procedure on the close of the poll.—(1) Immediately after the close of the poll, the Presiding Officer shall, in the presence of such of the contesting candidates or their authorised representatives as may be present,—

- (i) open the used ballot box or ballot boxes and count the ballot papers taken out therefrom;

- (ii) after counting the total number of ballot papers, proceed to separate the ballot papers, which are invalid under paragraph 16 of the Schedule from the other ballot papers;
- (iii) after excluding the invalid ballot papers under clause (ii), separate the ballot papers cast in favour of each contesting candidate and count such ballot papers in favour of each candidate, separately;
- (iv) put the invalid ballot papers in a separate packet and so also the valid ballot papers cast in favour of each contesting candidate;
- (v) record on each such packet a certificate of the number of ballot papers put in it and indicate the nature of the contents thereof, specifying except in case of the packet containing invalid ballot papers, the name of the contesting candidate concerned; and
- (vi) put the packets mentioned in clause (iv) in a principal packet and seal it.

26. Completion of statements of the count and other packets.—

(1) The Presiding Officer shall prepare in Form V a statement of the result of the count and send it forthwith to the Returning Officer.

(2) The Presiding Officer shall seal into separate packets

- (i) the un-issued ballot papers with the counterfoils;
- (ii) the spoilt ballot papers;
- (iii) the marked copies of the lists of voters;
- (iv) the counterfoils of the issued ballot papers; and
- (v) such other papers as the Presiding Officer may direct.

(3) The Presiding Officer shall immediately after the count under rule 25 prepare in Form VI a ballot paper account showing:—

- (a) the number of ballot papers entrusted to him;
- (b) the number of ballot papers taken out of the ballot box and counted;
- (c) the number of issued ballot papers and spoilt ballot papers; and
- (d) the number of invalid ballot papers.

(4) The Presiding Officer shall, if so requested by any contesting candidate or his agent, give him a certified copy of the statement of the count or the ballot paper account.

(5) The Presiding Officer shall obtain on each statement and packet prepared under this rule the signatures of such of the contesting candidates or their agents as are present and desire to sign it.

(6) The Presiding Officer shall, immediately after the close of the proceedings under this rule, cause the statement's, packets, ballot paper account and all the other connected documents to be sent to the Returning Officer.

27. Stray ballot paper.—Any ballot paper which has been issued to a voter and has not been inserted by him into the ballot box and is found outside the ballot box or elsewhere shall be cancelled and accounted for as a spoilt ballot paper.

28. Count by the Returning Officer.—(1) Immediately after the receipt of documents relating to the poll sent to him under sub-rule (6) of rule 26, the Returning Officer shall open the packets received by him in the presence of such of the contesting candidates or their representatives as may be present.

(2) The Returning Officer shall count the votes recorded for each candidate, excluding from the count the ballot papers which are invalid under paragraph 16 of the Schedule.

(3) The Returning Officer shall determine the result of the election in the manner laid down in paragraph 18 of the Schedule.

29. Return of election.—After the result has been determined under sub-rule (3) of rule 28, the Returning Officer shall declare the candidate who has obtained the largest number of votes to be elected to the office of President and shall submit a return of election in Form VII to the Federal Government.

30. Drawing of lots.—Where there is equality of votes amongst two or more candidates, the selection of the candidate to be elected shall be by drawing of lots.

31. Powers to issue instruction, etc.—Save as otherwise provided, the Commissioner may issue such instructions and exercise such powers as may, in his opinion, be necessary for ensuring that the election is conducted honestly, justly and fairly and in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution and these rules.

32. Direction by the Commissioner in certain matters.—Subject to the provisions of the Constitution, anything required to be done under these rules for which no provision or no sufficient provision exists shall be done by such authority and in such manner as the Commissioner may direct.

CHAPTER II

ELECTION COMMISSION

3. Procedure of the Commission.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, the Commission shall regulate its procedure.

(2) If, upon any matter requiring a decision of the Commission, there is difference of opinion among its members, the opinion of the majority shall prevail and the decision of the Commission shall be expressed in terms of the opinion of the majority.

(3) The Commission may exercise its powers and perform its functions notwithstanding that there is a vacancy in the office of any one of its members or that any one of its members is, for any reason, unable to attend its proceedings and the decision of the other two members shall have the effect of the decision of the Commission:

Provided that, in the event of a difference of opinion between the two members attending the proceedings of the Commission, the matter shall be placed for decision before the Commission.

4. Delegation of powers, etc.—The Commission may authorise its Chairman or any of its members or any of the officers of the Commission to exercise and perform all or any of its powers and functions under this Act.

5. Assistance to the Commission.—(1) All executive authorities in the Federation and in the Provinces shall render such assistance to the Commissioner and the Commission in the discharge of his or their functions as may be required of them by the Commissioner or the Commission.

(2) The Commissioner or the Commission may require any person or authority to perform such functions or render such assistance for the purposes of this Act as he or it may direct.

6. Power to requisition property.—The Provincial Government or an officer authorised by it in this behalf may, upon a request made in this behalf by the Commission, by order in writing, requisition any such vehicle, vessel or animal as is needed or is likely to be needed for the purpose of transporting to and from any polling station ballot boxes or other election material or any officer or other person engaged for the performance of any duties in connection with the election :

Provided that no vehicle, vessel or animal which is being used by a candidate or his election agent for any purpose connected with the election of such candidate shall be so requisitioned.

(2) Any person authorised in this behalf by the Provincial Government may take possession of any vehicle, vessel or animal requisitioned under sub-section (1) and may for that purpose use such force, including police force, as may be reasonably necessary.

(3) Where any vehicle, vessel or animal is requisitioned under sub-section (1), there shall be paid to the owner thereof compensation the amount of which shall be determined by the Provincial Government or the officer requisitioning the vehicle, vessel or animal on the basis of the fares and rates prevailing in the locality for its hire:

Provided that, where the owner of the vehicle, vessel or animal, being aggrieved by the amount of compensation so determined makes an application to the Provincial Government within a period of thirty days from the date the amount has been determined for the matter being referred to an arbitrator, the amount of compensation to be paid shall be such as the arbitrator appointed in this behalf by the Provincial Government may determine.

CHAPTER III

APPOINTMENT OF RETURNING OFFICER, ETC.

7. Appointment of ¹[District Returning Officer and] Returning Officer, etc.—(1) The Commission shall appoint, from amongst the officers of the Federal Government, Provincial Governments, corporations controlled by any such Government and local authorities, a ²[District Returning Officer for each District and a Returning Officer for each constituency] :

Provided that a person may be appointed as Returning Officer for two or more constituencies.

(2) The Commission may appoint, from amongst the Officers of the Federal Government, Provincial Governments, corporations controlled by such Government and local authorities, as many Assistant Returning Officers as may be necessary.

(3) An Assistant Returning Officer shall assist the Returning Officer in the performance of his functions under this Act and may, subject to any condition imposed by the Commission, exercise and perform, under the control of the Returning Officer, the powers and functions of the Returning Officer.

(4) It shall be the duty of a Returning Officer to do all such acts and things as may be necessary for effectively conducting an election in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules.

³[(5) Subject to the superintendence, direction and control of the Commission, the District Returning Officer shall coordinate and supervise all work in the district in connection with the conduct of elections and shall also perform such other duties and functions as may be entrusted to him by the Commission.]

¹(6) The Commission or the Commissioner may, at any time, for reasons to be recorded in writing, suspend any officer performing any duty in connection with an election, or any other public functionary, or any member of the police force or any other law-enforcing agency who obstructs or prevents or attempts to obstruct or prevent the conduct of fair and impartial poll or interferes or attempts to interfere with an elector when he records his vote, or influences in any manner the polling staff or an elector or does any other act calculated to influence the result of election, and make such arrangements as it or he may consider necessary for the performance of the functions of the officer so suspended.

(7) Where the Commission or the Commissioner suspends any officer under sub-section (6), the Commission or the Commissioner shall refer the matter to the appropriate authority for taking disciplinary action against such officer.]

8. Polling stations.—(1) The Returning Officer shall, before such time as the Commission may fix, submit to the ²[District Returning Officer] a list of polling stations he proposes to provide in a constituency for the purpose of election of a member for that constituency.

²[(2) Subject to the direction of the Commission, the District Returning Officer may make such alterations in the list of polling stations submitted under sub-section (1) as he deems necessary and shall, at least fifteen days before the polling day, publish in the official Gazette the final list of polling stations specifying the electoral area the electors whereof will be entitled to vote at each polling station.]

(3) The Returning Officer shall establish in each constituency polling stations according to the final list published under sub-section(2).

³[(4) A polling station shall be situated in a Government building for the constituency and, where no Government building is available for the purpose, an improvised polling station shall be set up on a public property.

Provided that no polling station shall be located in any premises which belong to, or are under the direct or indirect control of, any candidate.]

9. Presiding Officers and Polling Officer.—(1) A Returning Officer shall appoint for each polling station a Presiding Officer and such number of Assistant Presiding Officers and polling officers ⁴[from amongst the officers of the Federal

Provided that a person who is, or has at any time been, in the employment of any candidate shall not be appointed as a Presiding Officer, Assistant Presiding Officer or polling officer.

(2) A list of such Presiding Officers and polling officers shall be submitted to the ¹[District Returning Officer] at least fifteen days before the polling day for its approval and no change in the personnel shall be made except with the approval of the Commission.

(3) A Presiding Officer shall conduct the poll in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules, shall be responsible for maintaining order at the polling station and shall report to the Returning Officer any fact or incident which may, in his opinion, affect the fairness of the poll :

Provided that, during the course of the poll, the Presiding Officer may entrust such of his functions as may be specified by him to any Assistant Presiding Officer and it shall be the duty of such Assistant Presiding Officer to perform the functions so entrusted.

(4) The Returning Officer shall authorise one of the Assistant Presiding Officers to act in place of the Presiding Officer if the Presiding Officer is, at any time during the poll, by reason, of illness or other cause, not present at the polling station, or is unable to perform his functions; and any absence of the Presiding Officer, and the reason therefor, shall, as soon as possible after the close of the poll, be reported to the Returning Officer.

(5) The Returning Officer may, at any time during the poll, for reasons to be recorded in writing, suspend any Presiding Officer, Assistant Presiding Officer or polling officer and make such arrangements as he may consider necessary for the performance of the functions of the officer so suspended.

10. Supply of electoral rolls.— (1) The Commission shall provide the Returning Officer for each constituency with copies of electoral rolls for all the electoral areas within the constituency.

(2) The Returning Officer shall provide the Presiding Officer of each polling station with copies of electoral rolls containing the names of the electors entitled to vote at that polling station.

(2) Not more than one deposit under sub-section (1) shall be required in the case of a person who has been nominated as a candidate for the same seat by more than one nomination paper.

14. Scrutiny.—(1) The candidates, their election agents,¹[the proposers and seconders and one other person authorised in this behalf by each candidate]²[and an elector who has filed an objection to the nomination of a candidate,] may attend the scrutiny of nomination papers, and the Returning Officer shall give them reasonable opportunity for examining all nomination papers delivered to him under section 12:

³[Provided that an elector who has filed an objection to the nomination of a candidate shall only attend the scrutiny of the nomination paper of that candidate.]

(2) The Returning Officer shall, in the presence of the persons attending the scrutiny under sub-section (1), examine the nomination papers and decide any objection raised by any such person to any nomination.

(3) The Returning Officer may, either of his own motion or upon any objection,⁴[either by an elector or]⁵[by any person referred to in sub-section (1),] conduct such summary enquiry as he may think fit and may reject nomination paper if he is satisfied that—

- (a) the candidate is not qualified to be elected as a member;
- ⁵[(b) the proposer or the seconder is not qualified to subscribe to the nomination paper;]
- (c) any provision of section 12 or section 13 has not been complied with³[or submits any false or incorrect declaration or statement in any material particular] ; or
- ⁵[(d) the signature of the proposer or the seconder is not genuine:]

Provided that:—

- (i) the rejection of a nomination paper shall not invalidate the nomination of a candidate by any other valid nomination paper;

- (ii) the Returning Officer shall not reject a nomination paper on the ground of any defect which is not of a substantial nature and may allow any such defect to be remedied forthwith, including an error in regard to the name, serial number in the electoral roll or other particulars of the candidate or ¹[his proposer or seconder] so as to bring them in conformity with the corresponding entries in the electoral roll; and
- (iii) the Returning Officer shall not enquire into the correctness or validity of any entry in the electoral roll.

²[(3A) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (3), where a candidate deposits any amount of loan, tax or utility charges payable by him before rejection of his nomination paper on the ground of default in payment of such loan, taxes or utility charges, such nomination paper shall not be rejected for default thereof.]

³[(4) The Returning Officer shall endorse on each nomination paper his decision accepting or rejecting it and shall, in the case of rejection, record brief reasons therefor.]

²(5A) If, on the basis of any information or material brought to its knowledge by any source, a Tribunal constituted under sub-section (5) is of the opinion that a candidate whose nomination papers have been accepted is a defaulter of loan, taxes government dues or utility charges or has had any loan written off or suffers from any other disqualification from being elected as a member of an Assembly, it may, on its own motion, call upon such candidate to show cause why his nomination papers may not be rejected, and if the Tribunal is satisfied that the candidate is actually a defaulter as aforesaid or has had a loan written off or suffers from any disqualification, it may reject the nomination papers.]

(6) An appeal not disposed of within the period specified in sub-section (5) shall be deemed to have been rejected.

(7) Announcement of the day and time appointed for the hearing of an appeal under sub-section (5) over the radio or television or by publication in the press shall be deemed to be sufficient notice of the day and time so appointed.

14A. ¹[]

15. Publication of list of candidates.—(1) The Returning Officer shall, after the scrutiny of nomination papers, prepare and publish in the prescribed manner a list of validly nominated candidates.

(2) In case an appeal against the decision of the Returning Officer is accepted by the ²[Tribunal referred to in sub-section (5) of section 14] the Returning Officer shall revise the list of validly nominated candidates accordingly.

(3) The Returning Officer shall, on the ²[second day following the last date for decision of appeal] under sub-section (5) of section 14, prepare and publish in the prescribed manner the revised list of validly nominated candidates.

16. Withdrawal.—³(1) Any validly nominated candidate may, by notice in writing signed by him and delivered to the Returning Officer on or before the withdrawal date either by the candidate himself or through an advocate duly authorized in writing by him, withdraw his candidature.

Explanation.—Authorisation in favour of an advocate shall be attested by a competent authority, such as, Oath Commissioner or a Notary appointed under the Notaries Ordinance 1961 (XIX of 1961).]

(2) A notice of withdrawal under sub-section (1) shall, in no circumstances, be open to recall or cancellation.

(3) On receiving a notice of withdrawal under sub-section (1) the Returning Officer shall if he is satisfied that the signature on the notice is that of the candidate, cause a copy of the notice to be affixed at a conspicuous place in his office.

(4) The Returning Officer shall, ³[on] the withdrawal day, prepare and publish in the prescribed manner a list of contesting candidates which shall, if there are more than one contesting candidates, indicate their respective symbols and supply a copy of the list to each of them.

17. Retirement from election, etc.—(1) A contesting candidate may retire from the contest by a notice in writing signed by him and delivered to the Returning Officer on any day not later than four days before the polling day either by such candidate in person or by an agent authorised in this behalf in writing by such candidate.

(2) No person who has given a notice of retirement under sub-section (1) shall be allowed to cancel the notice.

(3) The Returning Officer shall upon receiving a notice of retirement under sub-section (1) cause a copy thereof to be affixed at some conspicuous place in his office and also to be published in such manner as he may think fit.

(4) A person in respect of whom a notice of retirement has been published under sub-section (3), shall be deemed to have withdrawn his candidature under section 16.

18. Death of a candidate after nomination.—(1) If a contesting candidate dies before the day for taking of the poll, the Returning Officer shall, by public notice, terminate the proceedings relating to that election.

(2) Where the proceedings relating to an election have been terminated under sub-section (1), fresh proceedings shall be commenced in accordance with the provisions of this Act, as if for a new election:

Provided that it shall not be necessary for the other contesting candidates to file fresh nomination papers or make a further deposit under section 13.

19. Postponement, etc., under certain circumstances.—(1) Where the proceedings relating to nomination, scrutiny or withdrawal cannot, for reasons beyond the control of the Returning Officer, to be recorded in writing, take place on the day appointed therefor he may postpone such proceedings.

(2) When the proceedings are postponed by the Returning Officer under sub-section (1), he shall inform the Commission of his having done so and the Commission shall, by notification in official Gazette, fix another day for the proceedings so postponed and if necessary, also the day or days for any subsequent proceedings.

20. Uncontested election.—(1) Where, after scrutiny under section 14, there remains only one validly nominated candidate or where, after withdrawal under section 16 or retirement under section 17, there remains only one contesting candidate, the Returning Officer shall, by public notice, declare such candidate to be elected to the seat:

Provided that, if after scrutiny any candidate indicates that he intends to file an appeal under sub-section (5) of section 14 against the rejection of his nomination paper, no person shall be declared elected until the period appointed for filing such appeal has expired and no such appeal has been filed or, where an appeal is filed, until the disposal of such appeal.

(2) The Returning officer shall submit to the Commission a return of the election in respect of which he has made a declaration under sub-section (1).

(3) The Commission shall, after such inquiry as it may deem necessary in any case, publish in the official Gazette the name of the candidate declared elected under sub-section (2).

21. Contested election and allocation of symbols.—²[(1) If there are more contesting candidates than one in respect of any constituency, the Returning Officer shall—

- (a) allocate, subject to any direction of the Commission, one of the prescribed symbols to each contesting candidate; and in so doing shall, so far as possible, have regard for any preference indicated by the candidate at the time of filing his nomination papers;
- (b) publish in such manner as the Commission may direct the names of the contesting candidates arranged in the Urdu alphabetical order specifying against each the symbol allocated to him; and
- (c) give public notice of the poll:

Provided that the Commission may, on an application made to it in this behalf, allot one of the prescribed symbols to any political party or a combination of two or more political parties who have agreed to put up joint candidates for election.]

(2) The Returning Officer shall arrange to exhibit prominently at each polling station the name of and symbol of each contesting candidate.

22. Election Agent.—(1) A candidate may appoint a person qualified to be elected as a member to be his election agent.

(2) The appointment of an election agent may, at any time, be revoked in writing by the candidate and, when it is so revoked or the election agent dies, another person may be appointed by the candidate to be his election agent.

(3) When an election agent is appointed, the candidate shall send to the Returning Officer a notice in writing of the appointment containing the name, father's name and address of the election agent.

(4) Where no appointment of an election agent is made under this section, a candidate shall be deemed to be his own election agent and shall, so far as the circumstances permit, be subject to the provisions of this Act both as a candidate and as an election agent.

23. Polling agent.—(1) The contesting candidate or his election agent may, before the commencement of the poll, appoint for each polling station as many polling agents as may be prescribed and shall give notice thereof in writing to the Presiding Officer.

Proviso ¹[* * * *]

(2) The appointment of a polling agent under sub-section (1) may at any time be revoked by the candidate or his election agent and, when it is so revoked or the polling agent dies, another person may be appointed by the candidate or the election agent to be a polling agent; and a notice of such appointment shall be given to the Presiding Officer.

24. Absence of candidates etc., not to invalidate acts, etc.—Where any act or thing is authorised by this Act to be done in the presence of the candidate, an election agent or a polling agent, the failure of such person to attend at the time and place appointed for the purpose shall not invalidate any act or thing otherwise validly done.

25. One day poll.— Polls for a general election for an Assembly shall be held on the same day and the polls for National Assembly seats and the Provincial Assembly seats may be held simultaneously:

Provided that, if the Commission is satisfied that polls cannot take place in a constituency on account of a natural calamity or for any other reason beyond its control, the Commission may fix another day for holding the poll in that constituency.

¹Omitted vide Act No. IX of 1991, dt. 18-6-1991.

26. Hours of the poll.— The Commission shall fix the hours, which shall not be less than eight, during which the poll shall be held and the Returning Officer shall give public notice of the hours so fixed and hold the poll accordingly.

27. Stopping of the poll.—(1) The Presiding Officer of a polling station shall stop the poll and inform the Returning Officer that he has done so if—

- (a) the poll at the polling station is, at any time, so interrupted or obstructed for reasons beyond the control of the Presiding Officer that it cannot be resumed during the polling hours fixed under section 26; and
- (b) any ballot box used at the polling station is unlawfully taken out of the custody of the Presiding Officer, or is accidentally or intentionally destroyed, or is lost or is damaged or tampered with to such an extent that the result of the poll at the polling station cannot be ascertained.

(2) Where a poll has been stopped under sub-section (1) the Returning Officer shall immediately report the circumstances to the Commission and the Commission shall direct a fresh poll at that polling station, unless it is satisfied that the result of the election has been determined by the polling that has already taken place at that polling station, taken with the result of the polling at other polling stations, in the same constituency.

(3) Where the Commission orders a fresh poll under sub-section (2), it shall, by notification in the official Gazette,—

- (a) appoint a day for a fresh poll and fix the place at which and the hours during which such fresh poll shall be taken; and
- (b) the Returning Officer shall give public notice of the day so appointed and the place and hours so fixed.

(4) At a fresh poll taken under sub-section (3) at a polling station all electors entitled to vote there at shall be allowed to vote and no vote cast at the poll stopped under sub-section (1) shall be counted; and the provisions of this Act and the rules and orders made thereunder shall apply to such fresh poll.

28. Election by secret ballot.— An election under this Act shall be decided by secret ballot and, subject to the provisions of section 29 every elector shall cast his vote by inserting in accordance with the provisions of this Act, in the ballot box, a ballot paper in the prescribed form.

29. Postal ballot.—(1) The following persons may cast their votes by postal ballot in such manner as may be prescribed, namely:—

- (a) a person referred to in sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) or sub-section (5) of section 7 of the Electoral Rolls Act, 1974 (XXI of 1974); and
- (b) a person appointed by the Returning Officer, including police personnel, for the performance of any duty in connection with an election at polling station other than the one at which he is entitled to cast his vote.

(2) An elector who, being entitled to do so, intends to cast his vote by postal ballot shall,—

- (a) in the case of a person referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (1), within such time as may be specified by the Commission soon after the issue of the notification under section 11; and
- (b) in the case of a person referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (1), as soon as may be after his appointment, apply to the Returning Officer of the constituency in which he is an elector for a ballot paper for voting by postal ballot; and every such application shall specify the name of the elector, his address and his serial number in the electoral roll.

(3) The Returning Officer shall immediately upon the receipt of an application by an elector under sub-section (2) send by post to such elector a ballot paper and an envelope bearing on its face a form of certificate of posting, showing the date thereof, to be filled in by the proper official of the Post Office at the time of posting by the elector.

(4) An elector on receiving his ballot paper for voting by postal ballot shall record his vote in the prescribed manner and, after so recording, post the ballot paper to the Returning Officer in the envelope sent to him under sub-section (3), so as to reach the Returning Officer before the consolidation of results by him.

30. Ballot Boxes.—(1) The Returning Officer shall provide each Presiding Officer with such number of ballot boxes as may be necessary.

(2) The ballot boxes shall be of such material and design as may be approved by the Commission.

(3) Not more than one ballot box shall be used at a time for the purpose of the poll at any polling station, or at any polling booth, where there are more than one polling booths at a polling station.

(4) Before the time fixed for the commencement of the poll, the Presiding Officer shall—

- (a) ensure that every ballot box to be used is empty;
- (b) show the empty ballot box to the contesting candidates and their election agents or polling agents whoever may be present, and record their statements in this behalf ¹[in the prescribed form] and obtain their signatures on them;
- (c) after the ballot box has been shown to be empty, close and seal it with his own seal and with the seal of such of the candidates, or their election agents or polling agents as may be present and may desire to put their own seals on it;and
- (d) place the ballot box so as to be conveniently accessible to the electors, and at the same time within his view and within the view of such candidates or their election agents or polling agents as may be present.

(5) If one ballot box is full or cannot further be used for receiving ballot papers, the Presiding Officer shall seal that ballot box with his own seal and with the seals of the candidates or their polling agents who may wish to seal it and keep it in a secure place in the polling station and use another ballot box in the manner laid down in sub-section(4).

(6) A Presiding Officer shall make such arrangements at the polling station that every elector may be able to secretly mark his ballot paper before folding and inserting it in the ballot box.

31. Admission to the polling station.—The Presiding Officer shall, subject to such instructions as the Commission may give in this behalf, regulate the number of electors to be admitted to the polling station at a time and shall exclude from the polling station all other persons except—

- (a) any person on duty in connection with the election;
- (b) the contesting candidates, their election agents and polling agents; and
- (c) such other persons as may be specifically permitted by the Returning Officer.

¹Substituted vide Ordinance No. L of 1979, dated 17-9-79

32. Maintenance of order at the polling station.—(1) The Presiding Officer shall keep order at the polling station and may remove or cause to be removed any person who misconducts himself at a polling station or fails to obey any lawful orders of the Presiding Officer.

(2) Any person removed under sub-section (1) from a polling station shall not, without the permission of the Presiding Officer, again enter the polling station during the poll and shall, if he is accused of an offence in polling station, be liable to be arrested without warrant by a Police Officer.

(3) The powers under this section shall be so exercised not to deprive an elector of an opportunity to cast his vote at the polling station at which he is entitled to vote.

33. Voting procedure.—(1) Where an elector presents himself at the polling station to vote, the Presiding Officer shall issue a ballot paper to the elector after satisfying himself about the identity of the elector ¹[and shall, for that purpose, require the elector to produce his identity card provided for in the National Registration Act, 1973 (LVI of 1973) ²[or issued under the National Database and Registration Authority Ordinance, 2000 (VIII of 2000)].

(2) Before a ballot paper is issued to an elector—

(a) ³[* * *]

(b) the number and name of the elector as entered in the electoral roll shall be called out;

⁴(c) the entry relating to the elector on the electoral roll shall be struck off to indicate that a ballot paper has been issued to him;]

⁵[(cc) he shall be required to receive a personal mark, made with indelible ink, on any finger of either hand as indicated by the Commission;]

(d) the ballot paper shall be stamped on its back with the official mark and ⁶[signed] by the Presiding Officer; and

(e) the Presiding Officer shall record on the counterfoil of the ballot paper the number of the elector on the electoral roll ²[the number of National Identity Card of the elector], stamp it with the official mark, ⁶[sign it and obtain on] it the thumb impression of the elector.

(3) ¹[A ballot paper shall not be issued to a person who—

- (a) fails or refuses to produce his identity card ²provided for in the National Registration Act, 1973 (LVI of 1973) [or issued under the National Database and Registration Authority Ordinance, 2000(VIII of 2000)];
- (b) ³ []
- (c) refuses to put his thumb impression on the counterfoil or whose thumb bears traces of its having already been used for putting an impression; or
- (d) refuses to receive the personal mark with indelible ink or who already bears such a mark or traces of such a mark.]

(4) If a contesting candidate or his election agent or polling agent alleges that an elector to whom a ballot paper is about to be issued already has one or more ballot papers in his possession, the Presiding Officer may require the elector to satisfy him that he does not have any other ballot paper in his possession and may also take such measures as he thinks fit to ensure that such elector does not insert more than one ballot paper in the ballot box.

(5) On receiving the ballot paper, the elector shall—

- (a) forthwith proceed to the place reserved for marking the ballot paper;
- (b) put the prescribed mark on the ballot paper at any place within the space containing the name and symbol of the contesting candidate for whom he wishes to vote; and
- (c) after he has so marked the ballot paper, fold and insert it in the ballot box.

(6) The elector shall vote without undue delay and shall leave the polling station immediately after he has inserted his ballot paper in the ballot box.

(7) Where an elector is blind or is otherwise so incapacitated that he cannot vote without the assistance of a companion, the Presiding Officer shall allow him such assistance and thereupon such elector may do with such assistance anything which an elector is required or permitted to do under this Act.

¹Substituted vide Act No. IX of 1991, dated 18-6-1991.

²Added vide Ordinance No. XXXVI of 2002, dated 31-7-2002.

³Omitted ibid.

34. Tendered ballot papers.—(1) If a person representing himself to be an elector applies for a ballot paper when another person has already represented himself to be that elector and has voted under the name of the person so applying, he shall be entitled, subject to the provisions of the section to receive a ballot paper (hereinafter referred to as “tendered ballot paper”) in the same manner as any other elector.

(2) A ballot paper issued under sub-section (1) shall, after it has been marked and folded by the elector, be placed in the same condition in separate packet bearing the label “Tendered Ballot Paper” instead of being placed in the ballot box and shall not be included in the count by the Presiding Officer or the Returning Officer.

(3) The name of the person applying for a ballot paper under sub-section (1) and his number on the electoral roll shall be entered in a list (hereinafter referred to as “the tendered votes list”) to be prepared by the Presiding Officer.

35. Challenge of electors.—(1) If, at the time a person applies for ballot paper for the purpose of voting, a candidate or his polling agent declares to the Presiding Officer that he has reasonable cause to believe that person has already voted at the election, at the same or another polling station, or is not the person against whose name entered in the electoral roll he is seeking to vote, and undertakes to prove the charge in a court of law and deposits with the Presiding Officer in cash a sum of two rupees, the Presiding Officer may, after warning the person of the consequences and obtaining on the counterfoil, his thumb impression and if he is literate also his signature issue a ballot paper (hereinafter referred to as “challenged ballot paper”) to that person.

(2) If the Presiding Officer issues a ballot paper under sub-section (1) to such person he shall enter the name and address of that person in a list to be prepared by him (hereinafter referred to as “the challenged votes list”) and obtain thereon the thumb impression and, if he is literate, also the signature of that person.

(3) A ballot paper issued under sub-section (1) shall, after it has been marked and folded by the elector, be placed in the same condition in a separate packet bearing the label “Challenged Ballot Papers”, instead of being placed in the ballot box.

36. Spoilt ballot paper.—(1) An elector who has inadvertently so spoilt his ballot paper that it cannot be used as a valid ballot paper may, upon proving the fact of inadvertence to the satisfaction of the Presiding Officer and returning the ballot paper to him, obtain another ballot paper and cast his vote by such other ballot paper.

(2) The Presiding Officer shall forthwith cancel the ballot paper returned to him under sub-section (1), make a note to that effect on the counterfoil over his own signatures and sign the cancelled ballot paper, and place it in a separate packet bearing the label “Spoilt Ballot Papers”.

37. Voting after close of poll.—No person shall be given any ballot paper or be permitted to vote after the hour fixed for the close of the poll, except the persons who at that hour are present within the building, room, tent or enclosure in which the polling station is situated and have not voted but are waiting to vote.

38. Proceedings at the close of poll.—(1) The Presiding Officer shall count the votes immediately after the close of the poll in the presence of such of the contesting candidates, election agents and polling agents as may be present.

(2) The Presiding Officer shall give such of the contesting candidates, election agents and polling agents as may be present reasonable facility of observing the count and give them such information with respect thereto as can be given consistent with the orderly conduct of the count and the discharge of his duties in connection therewith.

(3) No person other than the Presiding Officer, the Polling Officer, any other person on duty in connection with the poll, the contesting candidates, their election agents and polling agents shall be present at the count.

(4) The Presiding Officer shall—

- (a) open the used ballot box or ballot boxes and count the entire lot of ballot papers taken out therefrom;
- (b) open the packet bearing the label “Challenged Ballot Papers” and count them;
- (c) count, in such manner as may be prescribed, the-votes cast in favour of each contesting candidate excluding from the count the ballot papers which bear—
 - (i) no official mark and ¹[signature] of the Presiding Officer ;
 - (ii) any writing or any mark other than ²[* * *] the official mark, the signature of the Presiding Officer and the prescribed mark or to which a piece of paper or any other object of any kind has been attached ;
 - (iii) no prescribed mark to indicate the contesting candidate for whom the elector has voted; or ¹Substituted vide Ordinance 11 of 1985, dated 12-1-85.

²Omitted vide Act No. IX of 1991, dt. 18-6-1991.

- (iv) any mark from which it is not clear for whom the elector has voted:

Provided that a ballot paper shall be deemed to have been marked in favour of a candidate if the whole or more than half of the area of the prescribed mark appears clearly within the space containing the name and symbol of that candidate and, where the prescribed mark is divided equally between two such spaces, the ballot paper shall be deemed invalid.

- (5) The Presiding Officer may recount the votes—
 - (a) of his own motion if he considers it necessary; or
 - (b) upon the request of a contesting candidate or an election agent present if, in his opinion, the request is not unreasonable.

(6) The valid ballot papers cast in favour of each contesting candidate shall be put in separate packets and each such packet shall be sealed and shall contain a certificate as to the number, both in letters and figures, of the ballot papers put in it and shall also indicate the nature of the contents thereof, specifying the name and symbol of the contesting candidate to whom the packet relates.

(7) The ballot papers excluded from the count shall be put in a separate packet indicating thereon the total number both in letters and figures of the ballot papers, contained therein.

(8) The packets mentioned in sub-sections (6) and (7) shall be put in a principal packet which shall be sealed by the Presiding Officer.

(9) The Presiding Officer shall, immediately after the count, prepare a statement of the count in such form as may be prescribed showing therein the number of valid votes polled by each contesting candidate and the ballot papers excluded from the count.

(10) The Presiding Officer shall also prepare in the prescribed form a ballot paper account showing separately—

- (a) the number of ballot papers entrusted to him;
- (b) the number of un-issued ballot papers;
- (c) the number of ballot papers taken out of the ballot box or boxes and counted;

- (d) the number of tendered ballot papers;
- (e) the number of challenged ballot papers; and
- (f) the number of spoilt ballot papers.

(11) The Presiding Officer shall give a certified copy of the statement of the count and the ballot paper account to such of the candidates, their election agents or polling agents as may be present¹ [and obtain a receipt for such copy.]

- (12) The Presiding Officer shall seal in separate packets—
- (a) the un-issued ballot papers;
 - (b) the spoilt ballot papers;
 - (c) the tendered ballot papers;
 - (d) the challenged ballot papers;
 - (e) the marked copies of the electoral rolls;
 - (f) the counterfoils of used ballot papers;
 - (g) the tendered votes list;
 - (h) the challenged votes list; and
 - (i) such other papers as the Returning Officer may direct.

(13) The Presiding Officer shall obtain on each statement and packet prepared under this section the signature of such of the contesting candidates or their election agents or polling agents as may be present and, if any such person refuses to sign, the Presiding Officer shall record that fact.

(14) A person required to sign a packet or statement under sub-section (13) may, if he so desires, also affix his seal to it.

(15) After the close of the proceedings under the foregoing sub-sections, the Presiding Officer shall, in compliance with such instructions as may be given by the Commission in this behalf cause the packets, the statement of the count and the ballot paper account prepared by him to be sent to the Returning Officer together with such other records as the Commission may direct.

39. Consolidation of results.—(1) The Returning Officer shall give the contesting candidates and their election agents a notice in writing of the day, time and place fixed for the consolidation of the results, and, in the presence of such of the contesting candidates and election agents as may be present consolidate in the prescribed manner the results of the count furnished by the Presiding Officers, including therein the postal ballots received by him before the time aforesaid.

(2) The consolidation proceedings shall be held without any avoidable delay as soon as possible after the polling day.

(3) Before consolidating the results of the count, the Returning Officer shall examine the ballot papers excluded from the count by the Presiding Officer and, if he finds that any such ballot paper should not have been so excluded, count it as a ballot paper cast in favour of the contesting candidate for whom the vote has been cast thereby.

(4) The Returning Officer shall also count the ballot papers received by him by post in such manner as may be prescribed and include the votes cast in favour of each contesting candidate in the consolidated statement except those which he may reject on any of the grounds mentioned in sub-section (4) of section 38.

(5) The ballot papers rejected by the Returning Officer under sub-section (4) shall be shown separately in the consolidated statement.

(6) The Returning Officer may recount the ballot papers—

- (a) upon the request of, or challenge in writing made by, a contesting candidate or his election agent, if the Returning Officer is satisfied that the request or the challenge is reasonable; or
- (b) if so directed by the Commission, in which case the recount shall be held in such manner and at such place as may be directed by the Commission.

¹[(7) After consolidation of results the Returning Officer shall give to such contesting candidates and their election agents as are present during the consolidation proceedings, a copy of the result of the count notified to the Commission immediately against proper receipt and shall also post a copy thereof to the other candidates and election agents.]

40. Rsealing of packets and supply of copies.—The Returning Officer shall—

- (a) immediately after preparing the consolidated statement and the return of election, reseal in the prescribed manner the packets and statements opened by him for the purpose of consolidation, permitting such of the candidates and their election agents as may be present to sign the packets and affix their seals to such packets; and ¹Added vide National Reconciliation Ordinance, 2007.

- (b) supply duly attested copies of the consolidated statement and the return of election to such of the candidates and their election agents as may be present.

41. Equality of votes.—(1) Where, after consolidation of the results of the count under section 39, it appears that there is equality of votes between two or more contesting candidates and the addition of one vote for one such candidate would entitle him to be declared elected, the Returning Officer or the Commission, as the case may be, shall forthwith draw a lot in respect of such candidates and the candidate on whom the lot falls shall be deemed to have received the highest number of votes entitling him to be declared elected.

(2) The lot shall be drawn in the presence of such of the contesting candidates and their election agents as may be present.

(3) The Returning Officer or the Commission, as the case may be, shall keep, record of the proceedings and obtain thereon the signature of such of the candidates and election agents as have been witness to the proceedings, and if any such person refuses to sign, such fact shall be recorded.

42. Declaration of results.—(1) The Returning Officer shall, after obtaining the result of the count under section 39 or of the drawal of the lots under section 41, intimate the results of the count to the Commission which shall declare by public notice the contesting candidate who has or is deemed to have received the highest number of votes to be elected.

(2) The public notice shall contain the name of, and the total number of votes received by, each contesting candidate as a result of consolidation under section 39 or as a result of drawal of lots under section 41.

(3) The Returning Officer shall, immediately after the count, submit to the Commission a copy of the consolidated statement in the prescribed form.

¹[(3A) Every returned candidate shall, within ten days from the poll of an election, submit a return of election expenses in accordance with the provisions of section 50].

(4) The Commission shall publish in the official Gazette the name of the returned candidate.

²[Provided that the result of a returned candidate shall not be published who fails to submit the return of expenses specified in subsection (3A)].

¹Inserted vide Ordinance No. XXXVI of 2002, dated 31-7-2002.

²Added vide Ordinance No. XXXVI of 2002, dated 31-7-2002.

¹[42A. Yearly submission of statements of assets and liabilities.—

(1) Every member shall, on a form prescribed under clause (f) of sub-section (2) of section 12, submit a statement of assets and liabilities of his own, his spouse and dependents annually to the Commission by the thirtieth day of September each year.

(2) The statements of assets and liabilities submitted under sub-section (1) shall be published in the official Gazette and copies thereof may be obtained on payment of prescribed fee.

(3) The Commissioner shall, by the fifteenth day of October each year, notify the names of the members who fail to file statements of assets and liabilities within the period specified in sub-section (1) and by an order, direct that such member shall cease to function till such statement is submitted.

(4) Where a member submits the statement of assets and liabilities under sub-section (1) which is found to be false in material particulars, he may be proceeded against under section 82 for committing the offence of corrupt practice.]

43. Return or forfeiture of deposit.—(1) After the termination of the proceedings relating to an election under section 18 where the proceedings have been so terminated and the contesting candidate does not want to utilise his security deposit for a subsequent election, or after the declaration of the result of an election under section 20 or section 42 the deposit made under section 13, in respect of any candidate shall be returned to the person making it or to his legal representative, except the deposit in respect of a candidate who has received less than one-eighth of the total number of votes cast at the election :

²[Provided that a deposit shall not be required to be returned after six months of the termination of the proceedings or, as the case may be, the declaration of the result of the election, as aforesaid.]

(2) A deposit which is not required to be returned under sub-section (1) shall be forfeited to the Federal Government.

44. Documents to be sent to, and retained by, the Commission.—
The Returning Officer shall forward to the Commission—

- (a) the packets containing the ballot papers each of which shall be sealed with the seal of the Presiding Officer, or, if opened by the Returning Officer, with the seal of the Returning Officer;
- (b) the packets containing the counterfoils of issued ballot papers;
- (c) the packets containing the marked copies of the electoral rolls;
- (d) the packets containing the ballot paper account;

¹Inserted vide Ordinance No. XXXVI of 2002, dated 31-7-2002.

²Added vide Act No. IX of 1991, dated 18-6-1991.

- (e) the packets containing the tendered ballot papers, the challenged ballot papers, the tendered votes list and the challenged votes list; and
- (f) such other papers as the Commission may direct.

(2) The Returning Officer shall endorse in each packet forwarded under sub-section (1) the description of its contents, the date of the election to which the contents relate and the name and number of the constituency for which the election was held.

(3) The Commission shall retain the documents contained in the packets received under sub-section (1) for a period of one year from the date of their receipt and thereafter shall, unless otherwise directed by a Tribunal, cause them to be destroyed.

45. Public inspection of documents.—The documents retained by the Commission under section 44, except the ballot papers, shall be open to public inspection at such time and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, and the Commission shall, upon an application made in this behalf and on payment of such fee and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, furnish copies of, or extracts from, those documents.

46. Order for production of documents.—(1) A Tribunal may order the opening of packets of counterfoils and certificates or the inspection of any counted ballot papers.

(2) An order under sub-section (1) may be made subject to such conditions as to persons, time, place and mode of inspection, production of documents and opening of packets as the Tribunal making the order may think expedient :

Provided that in making and carrying into effect an order for the inspection of counted ballot papers, care shall be taken that no vote shall be disclosed until it has been held by the Tribunal to be invalid.

(3) Where an order is made under sub-section (1), the production by the Commission of any document in such manner as may be directed by the order shall be conclusive evidence that the document relates to the election specified in the order and any endorsement on any ballot papers or packet of ballot papers or documents so produced shall be prima facie evidence that the ballot papers or documents are what the endorsement states them to be.

(4) The production from proper custody of a ballot paper purporting to have been used at an election and of a numbered counterfoil bearing the signature or thumb impression of the elector shall be prima facie evidence that the elector whose vote was given by that ballot paper was the elector who had on the electoral rolls the same number as was written on the counterfoil.

(5) Save as is provided in this section no person shall be allowed to inspect any rejected or counted ballot papers in the possession of the Commission.

ELECTION TO RESERVED SEATS

47A. Party lists for reserved seats, etc.—(1) For the purpose of election to seats reserved for women and non-Muslims in the National Assembly and Provincial Assemblies, the political parties contesting election for such seats shall, within the period fixed by the Election Commission for submission of nomination papers, file separate lists of their candidates in order of priority for seats reserved for women and non-Muslims with the Chief Election Commissioner or, as he may direct, with the Provincial Election Commissioner, who shall forthwith cause such lists to be published for information of the public at large.

(2) The parties' lists referred to in clause (1) may contain as many names of additional candidates as a political party may deem necessary for contesting seats reserved for women and non-Muslims to provide for any disqualification of candidates during scrutiny of nomination papers or for filling of any vacant seat during the terms of National Assembly and Provincial Assemblies, as the case may be.

(3) Where a seat reserved for women or non-Muslims in the National Assembly or a Provincial Assembly falls vacant for death, resignation or disqualification of a member, it shall be filled in by the next person in order of precedent from the party's list of the candidates submitted to the Election Commission under clause (1).

(4) Every candidate contesting election on a seat reserved for women or non-Muslims shall, alongwith the nomination papers and other relevant documents, submit to the Returning Officer appointed by the Election Commission in this behalf—

- (a) a copy of the party list of the candidate's political party for such seats;
- (b) declarations and statements as required by law or rules in support of the nomination; and
- (c) the fee required under any law for the time being in force for filing nomination papers.]

¹Substituted vide Ordinance No. XXXVI of 2002, dt. 31-7-2002.

CHAPTER VI

ELECTION EXPENSES

¹[48. Definitions.—For the purpose of this Act, “election expenses” means any expenditure incurred before, during and after an election or payment made, whether by way of gift, loan, advance, deposit or otherwise, for the arrangement, conduct or benefit of, or in connection with or incidental to the election of a candidate, including the expenditure on account of issuing circulars or publications, but does not include the deposit made under section 13.

49. Restriction on election expenses.—(1) No person other than the candidate shall incur any election expenses of such candidate:

Provided that where any person incurs any election expenses on behalf of such candidate, whether for stationery, postage, telegrams, advertisement, transport or for any other item whatsoever, such expenses shall be deemed to be the election expenses incurred by the candidate himself.

(2) The election expenses of a contesting candidate shall not exceed, in the case of an election to a seat in the National Assembly, one million and five hundred thousand rupees and, in the case of an election to a seat in a Provincial Assembly, one million rupees.

(3) A candidate shall, through bills, receipts and other documents, vouch for every payment made in respect of election expenses, except where the amount is less than five hundred rupees.

50. Return of election expenses.—(1) Every contesting candidate, other than the returned candidate, shall submit the return of his election expenses within thirty days of the publication of the name of the returned candidate.

(2) The return of election expenses of the returned candidate referred to in sub-section (3A) of section 42 and of every contesting candidate referred to in sub-section (1) shall be submitted to the Returning Officer in the prescribed form containing—

- (a) a statement of all payments made by him together with all bills and receipts;
- (b) a statement of all disputed claims;
- (c) a statement of all unpaid claims, if any; and

¹Added vide Ordinance No. XXXVI of 2002, dated 31-7-2002.

(d) a statement of all moneys, securities or equivalent of money received from, or spent, by any person for the benefit of the candidate, specifying the name of every such person.

(3) The returns submitted under sub-section (2) shall be accompanied by an affidavit of the candidate in the prescribed form.

51 Inspection of returns, etc.—(1) The returns and documents submitted under section 50 shall be kept by the Returning Officer in his office or at such other convenient place as he may think fit and shall, during one year from the date of their receipt by him, be open to inspection by any person on payment of the prescribed fee.

(2) The Returning Officer shall, on an application made in this behalf and payment of the prescribed fee, give any person copies of any return or document kept under sub-section (1)].

CHAPTER VII

ELECTION DISPUTES

52. Election petition.—(1) No election shall be called in question except by an election petition made by a candidate for that election (hereafter in this Chapter referred to as the petitioner).

(2) An election petition shall be presented to the Commissioner within ¹[forty-five days] of the publication in the official gazette of the name of the returned candidate and shall be accompanied by a receipt showing that the petitioner has deposited at any branch of the National Bank of Pakistan or at a Government Treasury or sub-Treasury in favour of the Commissioner, under the prescribed head of account, as security for the costs of the petition, a sum of one thousand rupees.

53. Presentation of petition.—(1) An election petition shall be presented by a petitioner and shall be deemed to have been presented—

- (a) when it is delivered in person to the Secretary to the Commission or to such other officer as may be appointed by the Commission in that behalf,—
 - (i) by the petitioner; or
 - (ii) by a person authorised in writing in this behalf by the petitioner; or
- (b) when delivered by registered post to the Secretary to the Commission or to such other officer as aforesaid.

¹Substituted vide Ordinance No. XVIII of 1985, dated 10-3-85

(2) An election petition, if sent by registered post, shall be deemed to have been presented in time if it is posted within the period specified in sub-section (2) of section 52.

54. Parties to the petition.—The petitioner shall join as respondents to his election petition—

- (a) all contesting candidates; and
- (b) any other candidate against whom any allegation of any corrupt or illegal practice is made and shall serve personally or by registered post on each such respondent a copy of the petition.

Explanation.—In this section and in the following provisions of this chapter, “corrupt or illegal practice” means a “corrupt practice” or an “illegal practice” within the meaning of Chapter VIII.

55. Contents of petition.—(1) Every election petition shall contain—

- (a) A precise statement of the material facts on which the petitioner relies;
- (b) full particulars of any corrupt or illegal practice or other illegal act alleged to have been committed, including as full a statement as possible of the names of the parties alleged to have committed such corrupt or illegal practice or illegal act and the date and place of the commission of such practice or act; and
- (c) the relief claimed by the petitioner.

(2) A petitioner may claim as relief any of the following declarations, namely:—

- (a) that the election of the returned candidate is void;
- (b) that the election of the returned candidate is void and that the petitioner or some other person has been duly elected; or
- (c) that the election as a whole is void.

(3) Every election petition and every schedule or annex to that petition shall be signed by the petitioner and verified in the manner laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908), for the verification of pleadings.

56. Procedure on receipt of petition by the Commissioner.—(1) If the Commissioner finds that any provision of section 52, section 53 or section 54 has not been complied with, the petition shall be dismissed forthwith.

(2) If an election petition is not dismissed under sub-section (1), the Commissioner shall refer it for trial to a Tribunal.

57. Appointment of Tribunal.—(1) For the trial of election petitions under this Act, the Commissioner shall appoint as many Election Tribunals as may be necessary.

(2) An Election Tribunal shall consist of a person who has been, or is, or, at the time of his retirement as a District and Sessions Judge, was qualified to be, a Judge of a High Court.

58. Power to transfer petition.—The Commissioner, either of his own motion or on an application made in this behalf by any of the parties, may, at any stage, transfer an election petition from one Tribunal to another Tribunal and the Tribunal to which the election petition is so transferred—

- (a) shall proceed with the trial of the petition from the stage from which it is transferred; and
- (b) may, if it thinks fit, recall and examine any of the witnesses already examined.

59. Place of trial.—The trial of an election petition shall be held at such place or places as the Tribunal may think fit.

60. Advocate-General to assist the Tribunal.—The Advocate-General for a Province shall, if a Tribunal so requires, assist the Tribunal at the hearing of an election petition in such manner as it may require.

61. Appearance before Tribunal.—Any appearance, application or act before a Tribunal may be made or done by a party in person or by an advocate or any other person entitled or allowed to plead in any civil court and duly appointed to act on his behalf:

Provided that the Tribunal may, where it considers it necessary, direct any party to appear in person.

62. Procedure before Tribunal.—¹[(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and the rules, every election petition shall be tried in accordance with the procedure laid down by the Election Commission.]

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Evidence Act, 1872 (I of 1872), shall apply for the trial of an election petition.

¹Substituted vide Ordinance No. XVIII of 1985, dated 10-3-85

(3) The Tribunal may, at any time, upon such terms and on payment of such fee as it may direct, allow a petition to be amended in such manner as may, in its opinion, be necessary for ensuring a fair and effective trial and for determining the real questions at issue, so however that no new ground of challenge to the election is permitted to be raised.

(4) At any time during the trial of an election petition, the Tribunal may call upon the petitioner to deposit such further sum by way of security, in addition to the sum deposited under section 52, as it may think fit.

63. Dismissal of petition during trial.—The Tribunal shall dismiss an election petition, if—

- (a) the provisions of section 54 or section 55 have not been complied with; or
- (b) if the petitioner fails to make the further deposit required under subsection (4) of section 62.

64. Power of the Tribunal.—The Tribunal shall have all the powers of a civil court trying a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, (Act V of 1908), and shall be deemed to be a civil court within the meaning of sections ¹[476,] 480 and 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898).

65. Further provision relating to evidence and witnesses.—(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law for the time being in force, no document shall be inadmissible in evidence at the trial of an election petition only on the ground that it is not duly stamped or registered.

(2) No witness shall be excused from answering any question as to any matter in issue, or relevant to a matter in issue, in the trial of an election petition upon the ground that the answer to such question may incriminate or tend to incriminate him or that it may expose or tend to expose him to any penalty or forfeiture; but no witness shall be required or permitted to state for whom he has voted at an election.

(3) A witness who answers truly all questions which he is required to answer shall be entitled to receive a certificate of indemnity from the Tribunal and an answer given by him to a question put by or before the Tribunal shall not, except in the case of any criminal proceeding for perjury in respect of his evidence, be admissible in evidence against him in any civil or criminal proceedings.

¹Inserted vide Ordinance No. XXIV of 1985, dated 17-3-85.

(4) A certificate of indemnity granted to any witness under sub-section (3) may be pleaded by him in any court and shall be a full and complete defence to or upon any charge under Chapter IXA of the Pakistan Penal Code (Act LXXV of 1860), or under this Act, arising out of the matters to which such certificate relates, but it shall not be deemed to relieve him from any disqualification in connection with an election imposed by any law for the time being in force.

(5) The reasonable expenses incurred by any person in attending to give evidence may be allowed to him by the Tribunal and shall, unless the Tribunal otherwise directs, be deemed to be part of the costs.

66. Recrimination where seat is claimed.—(1) Where in an election petition a declaration is claimed that a candidate other than the returned candidate has been duly elected, the returned candidate or any other party may produce evidence to prove that the election of such other candidate would have been declared void had he been the returned candidate and had a petition been presented calling his election in question:

Provided that the returned candidate or such other party as aforesaid shall not be entitled to give such evidence unless he or it has, within the fourteen days next following the commencement of the trial, given notice to the tribunal of his intention so to do and has also deposited the security referred to in section 52.

(2) Every notice referred to in sub-section (1) shall be accompanied by a statement of the case, and all the provisions relating to the contents, verification, trial and procedure of an election petition, or to the security deposit in respect of an election petition, shall apply to such a statement as if it were an election petition.

67. Decision of the Tribunal.—(1) The Tribunal may, upon the conclusion of the trial of an election petition, make an order—

- (a) dismissing the petition;
- (b) declaring the election of the returned candidate to be void;
- (c) declaring the election of the returned candidate to be void and the petitioner or any other contesting candidate to have been duly elected; or
- (d) declaring the election as a whole to be void.

¹[(1A) The Election Tribunal shall proceed with the trial of the election petition on day to day basis and the decision thereof shall be taken within four months from its receipt :

¹Added vide Ordinance No. XXXVI of 2002, dated 31-7-2002.

Provided that where the delay in the proceedings is occasioned by any act or omission of a returned candidate or any other person acting on his behalf, the Tribunal shall refer to the Commissioner that such candidate may be declared by the Commission to have ceased to perform the functions of his office either till the conclusion of the proceedings or for such period as the Commission may direct.]

(2) Save as provided in sub-section (3), the decision of a Tribunal on an election petition shall be final.

¹[(3) Any person aggrieved by a decision of the Tribunal may, within thirty days of the announcement of the decision, appeal to the Supreme Court and the decision of the Supreme Court on such appeal shall be final.

Explanation.—In this sub-section, “decision of the Tribunal” shall not be deemed to include an order made by the Commission in the exercise of its powers under section ²[103AA.]

68. Ground for declaring election of returned candidate void.—(1) The Tribunal shall declare the election of the returned candidate to be void if it is satisfied that—

- (a) the nomination of the returned candidate was invalid; or
- (b) the returned candidate was not, on the nomination day, qualified for, or was disqualified from, being elected as a member; or
- (c) the election of the returned candidate has been procured or induced by any corrupt or illegal practice; or
- (d) a corrupt or illegal practice has been committed by the returned candidate or his election agent or by any other person with the connivance of the candidate or his election agent.

(2) The election of a returned candidate shall not be declared void on the ground—

- (a) that any corrupt or illegal practice has been committed, if the Tribunal is satisfied that it was not committed by, or with the consent or connivance of that candidate or his election agent and that the candidate and the election agent took all reasonable precaution to prevent its commission; or ¹Substituted vide Ordinance No. XVI of 1977, dated 30-3-1977.

²Substituted vide Act No. IX of 1991, dated 18-6-1991.

- (b) that any of the other contesting candidates was, on the nomination day not qualified for or was disqualified from, being elected as a member.

69. Ground for declaring a person other than a returned candidate elected.—The Tribunal shall declare the election of the returned candidate to be void and the petitioner or any other contesting candidate to have been duly elected, if it is so claimed by the petitioner or any of the respondents and the Tribunal is satisfied that the petitioner or such other contesting candidate was entitled to be declared elected.

70. Ground for declaring election as a whole void.—The Tribunal shall declare the election as a whole to be void if it is satisfied that the result of the election has been materially affected by reason of—

- (a) the failure of any person to comply with the provisions of the Act or the rules; or
- (b) the prevalence of extensive corrupt or illegal practice at the election.

71. Decision in case of equality of votes.—(1) Where, after the conclusion of the trial, it appears that there is an equality of votes between two or more contesting candidates and the addition of one vote for one such candidate would entitle him to be declared elected, the Tribunal shall draw a lot in respect of such candidates and the candidate on whom the lot falls shall be deemed to have received the highest number of votes entitling him to be declared elected.

(2) Before proceeding to draw a lot under sub-section (1), the Tribunal shall give notice to the contesting candidates between whom there is an equality of votes and shall proceed to draw a lot on the day and at the time and place stated in the notice:

Provided that, if the contesting candidates are present when it appears that there is an equality of votes between them, the Tribunal may proceed forthwith to draw a lot without giving notice as aforesaid.

72. Other provisions relating to Tribunal.—(1) An order of the Tribunal under section 67 shall take effect on the date on which it is made and shall be communicated to the Commissioner who shall publish it in the official Gazette.

(2) The Tribunal shall after an election petition has been disposed of, forward the record thereof to the Commissioner who shall retain it for a period of five years from the date of its receipt and shall thereafter cause it to be destroyed.

73. Withdrawal of petition.—(1) An election petition may be withdrawn—

- (a) before the Tribunal has been appointed, by leave of the Commissioner; and
- (b) after a Tribunal has been appointed, by leave by the Tribunal.

(2) Where leave is granted by the Tribunal, the petitioner shall be ordered to pay the costs incurred by the respondents to the election petition or such portion thereof as the Tribunal may direct.

74. Abatement on death of petitioner.—(1) An election petition shall abate on the death of a sole petitioner or of the sole survivor of several petitioners.

(2) Where a petition abates under sub-section (1) after a Tribunal has been appointed, notice of the abatement shall be given by the Tribunal to the Commissioner.

75. Death or withdrawal of respondent.—If, before the conclusion of the trial of an election petition, a respondent dies or gives notice in the prescribed form that he does not intend to contest the petition, and no respondent remains to contest the petition, the Tribunal shall, without any further hearing, or after giving such person as it may think fit an opportunity of being heard, decide the case ex-parte.

76. Failure of petitioner to appear.—Where, at any stage of the trial of an election petition, no petitioner makes an appearance, the Tribunal may dismiss the petition for default, and make such order as to costs as it may think fit.

¹[76A. Additional powers of Election Tribunal.—(1) If an Election Tribunal, on the basis of any material coming to its knowledge from any source or information laid before it, is of the opinion that a returned candidate was a defaulter of loan, taxes, government dues or utility charges, or has submitted a false or incorrect declaration regarding payment of loans, taxes, government dues or utility charges, or has submitted a false or incorrect statement of assets and liabilities of his own, his spouse or his dependents under section 12, it may, on its own motion or otherwise, call upon such candidate to show cause why his election should not be declared void and, if it is satisfied that such candidate is a defaulter or has submitted false or incorrect declaration or statement, as aforesaid, it may, without prejudice to any order that may be, or has been made on an election petition, or any other punishment, penalty or liability which such candidate may have incurred under this Act or under any other law for the time being in force, make an order—

- (a) declaring the election of the returned candidate to be void ; and
- (b) declaring any other contesting candidate to have been duly elected.

(2) If on examining the material or information referred to in sub-section (1), an Election Tribunal finds that there appear reasonable grounds for believing that a returned candidate is a defaulter or has submitted a false or incorrect declaration referred to in sub-section (1) it may, pending decision of the motion under sub-section (1), direct that the result of the returned candidate shall not be published in the official Gazette.

(3) No order under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall be made unless the returned candidate is provided an opportunity of being heard.]

77. Order as to costs.—(1) The Tribunal shall when making an order under section 67, also make an order determining in its discretion the costs and specifying the persons by and to whom such costs are to be paid.

(2) If, in any order as to costs under sub-section (1) there is a direction for the payment of costs by any party to any person, such costs shall, if they have not already been paid, be payable in full and shall, upon application in writing in that behalf made to the Tribunal within six months of the order by the person to whom costs have been awarded, be paid, as far as possible, out of the security for costs deposited by such party.

(3) Where no costs have been awarded against a party who has deposited security for costs, or where no application for payment of costs has been made within the aforesaid six months, or where a residue remains after costs have been paid out of the security, such security or the residue thereof, as the case may be, shall, upon application in writing therefor by the person who made the deposit or by his legal representative, be returned by the Tribunal to the person making the application.

(4) Any order for costs may be enforced upon application in writing made to the principal civil court of original jurisdiction of the district in which the person from whom the costs are to be recovered resides or owns property, or of the district in which the constituency, or any part of the constituency, to which the disputed election relates is situate, as if such order were a decree passed by that court:

Provided that no proceeding shall be brought under this sub-section except in respect of costs which have not been recovered by an application under sub-section (2).

CHAPTER VIII

² Inserted vide Ordinance No. XXXVI of 2002, dated 31-7-2002.

(2) A Returning Officer, Assistant Returning Officer, Presiding Officer, Assistant Presiding Officer or any other officer or clerk on duty in connection with the election who is guilty of an offence under sub-section (1), shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

88. Interference with the secrecy of voting.—A person is guilty of an offence punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both if he—

- (a) interferes or attempts to interfere with an elector when he records his vote;
- (b) in any manner obtains or attempts to obtain in a polling station information as to the candidate for whom an elector is about to vote or has voted; or
- (c) communicates at any time any information obtained in a polling station as to the candidate for whom an elector is about to vote or has voted.

89. Failure to maintain secrecy.—A Returning Officer, Assistant Returning Officer, Presiding Officer, Assistant Presiding Officer, or polling officer, or any candidate, election agent or polling agent attending a polling station or any person attending at the counting of votes is guilty of an offence punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both, if he—

- (a) fails to maintain or aid in maintaining the secrecy of voting;
- (b) communicates, except for any purpose authorised by any law to any person before the poll is closed any information as to the official marks; or
- (c) communicates any information obtained at the counting of votes as to the candidate for whom any vote is given by any particular ballot paper.

90. Officials not to influence voters.—A Returning Officer, Assistant Returning Officer, Presiding Officer, Assistant Presiding Officer, Polling Officer or any other officer or clerk performing a duty in connection with an election, or any member of a police force, is guilty of an offence punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both, if he, in the conduct or management of an election or maintenance of order at a polling station,—

- (a) persuades any person to give his vote;
- (b) dissuades any person from giving his vote;
- (c) influences in any manner the voting of any person; or
- (d) does any other act calculated to influence the result of the election.

91. Breaches of official duty in connection with election.—A Returning Officer, Assistant Returning Officer, Presiding Officer, Assistant Presiding Officer or any other person employed by any such officer in connection with his official duties imposed by or under this Act, is guilty of an offence punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or with both, if he, wilfully and without reasonable cause, commits breach of any such official duty, by act or omission.

92. Assistance by Government servant.—A person in the service of Pakistan is guilty of an offence punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two year, or with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees, or with both, if he misuses his official position in a manner calculated to influence the results of the election.

93. Certain Powers of a ¹[Police Officer].—A Police Officer may—

- (a) arrest without warrant, notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V. of 1898), any person—
 - (i) who, commits personation or an offence under section 86 if the Presiding Officer directs him to so arrest such person;
 - (ii) who, being removed from the polling station by the Presiding Officer under section 32 commits any offence at the polling station.
- (b) remove any notice, sign, banner or flag used in contravention of section 85; and
- (c) seize any instrument or apparatus used in contravention of section 86 and take such steps, including use of force, as may be reasonable necessary for preventing such contravention.

¹Inserted vide Ordinance No. VIII of 1985, dated 21-1-85

94. Certain offences cognizable.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, an offence punishable under ¹[section 80A] or section 82 ²[or section 82A] or section 85 or sub-section (1) of section 87 shall be cognizable offence.

³(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any other law for the time being in force, the offences of corrupt practice shall be tried by the Sessions Judge and an appeal against his order shall lie before a Division Bench of the High Court.

(3) Where proceedings against a person for being involved in corrupt practice are initiated on a complaint made by a private individual, and such person is convicted by the court and his conviction is maintained in final appeal, the complainant may be entitled to such reward payable out of the amount of fine as may be imposed by the court.

Provided that where such complaint proves to be false, malafide or is made for any ulterior motive to provide benefit to another person, the complainant shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years, or with fine, or with both.]

95. Prosecution of offences by public officers.—(1) No Court shall take cognizance of an offence punishable under sub-section (2) of section 87, section 89, section 90, section 91 or section 92 except upon a complaint in writing made by order of or under authority from, the Commission or the Commissioner.

(2) The Commission or the Commissioner shall, if it or he has reason to believe that any offence specified in sub-section (1) has been committed, cause such enquiries to be made or prosecution to be instituted as it or he may think fit.

(3) An offence specified in sub-section (1) shall be exclusively triable by the Court of Session within the Jurisdiction of which the offence is committed.

⁴[(4) In respect of an offence specified in sub-section (1), section 494 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), shall have effect as if, after the word and comma “may,” therein, the words “if so directed by the Chief Election Commissioner and” were inserted.]

96. Court proceedings relating to election expenses.—The Commission shall direct the Returning Officer to launch proceedings in the appropriate court against persons who contravene the provisions of section 49 or fails to comply with the provisions of section 50.

MISCELLANEOUS

103. Commission to ensure fair election, etc.—Save as otherwise provided, the Commission may—

- (a) stop the polls at any stage of the election if it is convinced that it shall not be able to ensure the conduct of the election justly, fairly and in accordance with law due to large scale malpractices, including coercion, intimidation and pressures, prevailing at the election:
- (b) review an order passed by an officer under this Act or the rules, including rejection of a ballot paper; and
- (c) issue such instructions and exercise such powers, and make such consequential orders, as may in its opinion, be necessary for ensuring that an election is conducted honestly, justly and fairly, and in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules.

³[103A. Power of Commission to punish for contempt.—The Commission shall have the same power as the High Court has to punish any person for contempt of court and the Contempt of Court Act, 1976 (XLIV of 1976), shall have effect accordingly as if reference therein to a “court” and to a “judge” were a reference, respectively, to the “Commission” ⁴[and the Commissioner or, as the case may be, a] member of the Commission.]

⁴Substituted vide Ordinance No. XLIX of 1984, dated 27-10-84.

¹[103AA. Power of Commission to declare a poll void.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, if, from facts apparent on the face of the record and after such summary inquiry as it may deem necessary, the Commission is satisfied that, by reason of grave illegalities or violation of the provisions of this Act or the rules, the poll in any constituency ought to be declared void, the Commission may make a declaration accordingly and, by notification in the official Gazette, call upon that constituency to elect a member in the manner provided for in section 108.

(2) Notwithstanding the publication of the name of a returned candidate under sub-section(4) of section 42, the Commission may exercise the powers conferred on it by sub-section (1) before the expiration of sixty days after such publication; and, where the Commission does not finally dispose of a case within the said period, the election of the returned candidate shall be deemed to have become final, subject to a decision of a Tribunal.

(3) While exercising the powers conferred on it by sub-section (1), the Commission shall be deemed to be a Tribunal to which an election petition has been presented and shall, notwithstanding anything contained in Chapter VII, regulate its own procedure.]

²[103B.—[* * * * *]]

104. Directions of Commission in certain matters.—Anything required to be done for carrying out the purpose of this Act, for which no provision or no sufficient provision exists shall be done by such authority and in such manner as the Commission may direct.

105. Jurisdiction of courts barred.—No court shall question the legality of any action taken in good faith by or under the authority of the Commission, the Commissioner, a Returning Officer, Presiding Officer or an Assistant Presiding Officer or any decision given by any of them or any other officer or authority appointed under this Act or the rules.

106. Protection of action taken in good faith.—No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Commission, the Commissioner or any officer or other person in respect of anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under or in pursuance of this Act or of any rule or order made or any direction given there under.

² Omitted vide P.O. No. F. 24(8)/72-Pub , dated 12-5-77.

107. Power to make rules.—The Commission may with the approval of the President, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

108. Bye-elections, etc.—(1) When the seat of a member becomes vacant, the ¹[Commissioner] shall, by notification in the official Gazette, call upon the constituency concerned to elect a person to fill the seat for such constituency before such date as may be specified in the notification, and thereupon the provisions of this Act and the rules shall apply, as far as may be to the election to fill such seat:

Provided that, notwithstanding anything contained in subsection ¹(1) of section 11, the days for the several stages of an election shall be such as may be specified in the aforesaid notification.

(2) For the purpose of holding an election to fill a casual vacancy in an Assembly, and, during the period when a Commission does not stand constituted for the purpose of section 107, reference in this Act to the Commission shall be construed as reference to the Commissioner.

109. Repeal.—The National and Provincial Assemblies (Election) Ordinance, 1970 (XIII of 1970) and the National and Provincial Assemblies (Elections to Reserved Seats) Act, 1976 (XVIII of 1976), are hereby repealed in their application to the elections to which this Act applies.

(2) The Commission may allot any one of the symbols specified in sub-rule (1) to any political party ¹[or a combination of two or more political parties who have agreed to put up joint candidates for election] on an application made by it in this behalf.

²[(3) The Commission may allot a multiple symbol specified in sub-rule(1) to the candidate in the manner specified in sub-rule (2)].

10. Appointment of polling agents.—The number of polling agents appointed at a polling station by each contesting candidate under section 23 shall not exceed the number of booths set up at that polling station.

11. Form of ballot paper.—(1) Every ballot paper shall be in Form VI and every postal ballot paper in Form VII.

(2) Every ballot paper shall contain the number and name of the constituency to which the ballot paper relates.

(3) The names of the contesting candidates shall be arranged on the ballot paper in the same order as shown on the list of contesting candidates prepared under rule 7.

12. Issue of postal ballot papers.—(1) The Returning Officer shall, as soon as practicable, send a postal ballot paper by post to each elector who is entitled to vote by postal ballot under section 29 and who has applied in accordance with sub-section (2) of that section and shall at the same time—

- (a) enter on the counterfoil of the ballot paper the name of the elector to whom the ballot paper is sent and his serial number on the electoral roll together with the name of the electoral area; and
- (b) take necessary steps to ensure that the elector is not allowed to vote at a polling station.

² Substituted vide E.C.P. Notification S.R.O. No. 570(1)/93, dated 28-8-1993.

(2) Alongwith the ballot paper, the Returning Officer shall send to the elector—

- (a) a declaration in Form VIII;
- (b) a cover in Form IX;
- (c) a large cover addressed to himself in Form X; and
- (d) instructions for the guidance of the elector in Form XI.

(3) Every Officer under whose care or through whom a postal ballot paper is sent shall ensure that the same is delivered to the addressee without delay.

(4) After the ballot papers have been issued to all the electors referred to in sub-rule (1), the Returning Officer shall seal up in a packet the counter-foils of all such ballot papers and record on the packet a brief description of its contents, the name of the constituency and the date on which he seals it.

13. Recording of votes on postal ballot paper.—(1) An elector who has received a postal ballot paper and desires to vote shall record his vote on the ballot paper by ¹[writing the name of the candidate of his choice within the blank space provided on the ballot paper.]

(2) In recording the vote, such an elector shall, after complying with the instructions contained in Form XI sent to him under clause (d) of sub-rule (2) of rule 12, put the ballot paper in the cover in Form IX.

(3) The elector shall sign the declaration in Form VIII in the presence of Gazetted Officer or a Commissioned Officer to whom he is personally known or to whose satisfaction he has been identified and he shall have his signature attested by such Officer.

14. Assistance to illiterate or infirm electors casting vote by postal ballot.—(1) If an elector is illiterate or is unable through physical infirmity to record his vote on a postal ballot paper and sign the declaration in Form VIII, he shall be entitled to have his vote recorded and his declaration signed by any Gazetted Officer or Commissioned Officer.

(2) Any such elector may take the ballot paper together with the declaration and the covers received by him to any Gazetted Officer or Commissioned Officer and request such officer to record his vote and sign his declaration on his behalf.

¹Substituted vide E.C.P. Notification S.R.O. No. 913(I)/88, dated 15-10-88.

(3) Such Gazetted Officer or Commissioned Officer shall thereupon mark the ballot paper in accordance with the wishes of the elector in his presence and sign the declaration on behalf of the elector and complete the appropriate certificate contained in Form VIII.

15. Re-issue of postal ballot paper.—(1) When a postal ballot paper and other papers sent under rule 12 are for any reason returned undelivered the Returning Officer may re-issue them by post or deliver them or cause them to be delivered to the elector personally on a request being made by him.

(2) If any elector has inadvertently dealt with his ballot paper or any of the other papers sent to him under rule 12 in such a manner that they cannot conveniently be used, another ballot paper and such other papers shall be issued to him after he has returned the ballot paper and other papers and satisfied the Returning Officer of the inadvertence.

(3) The Returning Officer shall cancel the ballot papers and other papers so returned and keep them in a separate packet and also note the serial numbers of all such cancelled ballot papers on the packet.

16. Return of postal ballot paper.—(1) After an elector has recorded his vote and made his declaration under rule 13, or has his vote recorded and his declaration signed under rule 14, he shall return the ballot paper and his declaration to the Returning Officer in accordance with the instructions communicated to him in Form XI.

(2) If any cover containing a postal ballot paper is received by the Returning Officer after the expiry of the time fixed under sub-section (1) of section 39, he shall note thereon the date of its receipt and shall keep all such covers together in a separate packet.

¹[16A. Statement to be signed by the contesting candidates, etc.—The statement referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (4) of section 30 shall be in Form XI-A.]

17. Manner of marking the ballot paper.—(1) The mark to be put under clause (b) of sub-section (5) of section 33 on the ballot paper, at any place within the space containing the name and symbol of the contesting candidate for whom the elector wishes to vote, shall be a mark containing squares on a rubber-stamp provided for the purpose by the Presiding Officer at the polling station and no other mark.

¹Inserted vide E.C.P. Notification S.R.O. No. 836(I)/79, dated 19-9-79.

(2) No other marking aid or rubber-stamp except the rubber-stamp supplied for the purpose by the Presiding Officer under sub-rule (1) shall be used by the elector for marking his ballot paper.

18. Manner of marking ballot paper if elector is incapacitated.—

(1) If an elector is totally blind or physically otherwise so incapacitated as to require the help of a companion, the Presiding Officer may allow him to be accompanied by a companion of not less than twenty-one years of age; and, in case the disability is such that the elector cannot mark the ballot paper himself, the person accompanying the elector may mark the ballot paper as indicated by the elector:

Provided that the person allowed to accompany the elector shall not himself be a candidate or an agent of a candidate.

(2) If the ballot paper is to be marked by the companion, the Presiding Officer shall make it clear to him that he must mark the ballot paper for the candidate of the elector's choice and that he must maintain the secrecy of voting by not divulging to any one the elector's choice of candidate.

(3) The Presiding Officer shall maintain a list of electors on whose behalf the ballot papers have been marked by their companions.

19. Manner of inserting a ballot paper.—After the ballot paper has been marked by the elector or by the person allowed to mark a ballot paper under rule 18, the elector or such person shall fold the ballot paper, in the screened off compartment so as to conceal his vote and insert it in the ballot box within the view of the Presiding Officer.

20. Tendered votes.—(1) The tendered votes list referred to in sub-section (3) of section 34 shall be in Form XII.

(2) The Presiding Officer shall, before issuing a ballot paper to a person referred to in sub-section (1) of section 34, obtain his signature or thumb impression on the form referred to in sub-rule (1).

21. Challenged votes.—(1) The challenged votes list referred to in sub-section (2) of section 35 shall be in Form XIII.

(2) The Presiding Officer shall soon after the close of the poll hand over against proper receipt such sum as has been deposited with him under sub-section (1) of section 35 to the Returning Officer, who shall deposit the same with the Government Treasury or Sub-Treasury against the head of account ¹[1300000-

22. Stray ballot papers.—If any ballot paper which has been issued to an elector has not been inserted by him into the ballot box but is found anywhere else in or near the polling station, it shall be cancelled and accounted for as “spoilt ballot paper”

23. Count on close of poll.—The Presiding Officer shall after taking out the ballot papers from the used ballot box or ballot boxes—

- (a) Separate the ballot papers which are unambiguously marked in favour of a contesting candidate from those which bear—
 - (i) no Official mark and ¹[signature] of the Presiding Officer; or
 - (ii) any writing or any mark other than the official mark, ¹[signature] of the Presiding Officer and the prescribed mark made with the rubber-stamp supplied for the purpose or to which a piece of paper or any other object of any kind has been attached; or
 - (iii) no prescribed mark indicating the contesting candidate for whom the elector has voted; or
 - (iv) any mark from which it is not clear for whom the elector has voted, provided that a ballot paper shall be deemed to have been marked in favour of a candidate if the whole or more than half of the area of the prescribed mark appears clearly within the space containing the name and symbol of that candidate; and where the prescribed mark is divided equally between two such spaces, the ballot paper shall be deemed not to show clearly for whom the elector has voted;
- (b) count separately in respect of each contesting candidate in the alphabetical order of their names as appearing on the ballot paper, the ballot papers which are unambiguously marked in favour of that candidate and put each lot in a separate packet bearing the name and symbol of the contesting candidate to which it relates;
- (c) count and put in a separate packet the ballot papers mentioned in sub-clauses (i) to (iv) of clause (a);

¹Substituted vide E.C P. Notification No. F. I (10)/84-Cord , dated 20-1-85

- (d) open the packet labelled “challenged ballot papers” and count the ballot papers unambiguously marked in favour of each candidate, excluding from the count the ballot papers suffering from any of the defects mentioned in sub-clauses (i) to (iv) of clause (a);
- (e) after the challenged ballot papers have been so counted, the Presiding Officer shall put all such ballot papers as were taken out of the packet labelled “challenged ballot papers” into a separate packet;
- (f) place in each packet a certificate stating the number of ballot papers put therein, and sign and seal each packet;
- (g) obtain on each packet the signature and seal of such of the contesting candidates or their election or polling agents as may desire to sign and seal it; and
- (h) enclose all such packets in a principal packet with a certificate specifying the number of packets enclosed in the principal packet.

24. Statement of the count by the Presiding Officer.—The statement of the count under sub-section (9) of section 38 shall be prepared in Form XIV.

25. Ballot paper account by the Presiding Officer.—The ballot paper account referred to in sub-section (10) of section 38 shall be prepared in Form XV.

26. Consolidation of results.—(1) The Returning Officer shall consolidate in Form XVI the results of the count furnished by the Presiding Officer.

(2) Before consolidating the results, the Returning Officer shall open the packet containing the ballot papers excluded from the count by Presiding Officer as also the packet containing the challenged ballot papers and scrutinise each such ballot paper as was excluded from the count by the Presiding Officer.

(3) If the Returning Officer finds that any ballot paper excluded from the count by the Presiding Officer should not have been so excluded, he shall count it as a valid ballot paper cast in favour of the contesting candidate for whom it was cast:

Provided that in so doing the Returning Officer shall not mix up the ballot papers taken out from the packet labelled “challenged ballot papers” but shall keep the entire lot of challenged ballot papers in a separate packet-

(4) The Returning Officer shall reject a ballot paper, hereinafter referred to as “rejected ballot paper”, recording thereon the fact of such rejection if it suffers from any of the defects mentioned in sub-section (4) of section 38.

(5) If any contesting candidate or election agent objects to the rejection of a ballot paper, the Returning Officer shall add to his endorsement the words “rejection objected to”

(6) In consolidating the results of the count, the Returning Officer shall record the number of valid ballot papers cast in favour of each contesting candidate as shown by the Presiding Officer in the statement of the count, unless the figures thereof have undergone a change as a result of recount under sub-section (6) of section 39, in which case he shall record the figures as arrived at after the recount.

(7) Before recording the number of valid votes in the consolidated statement against the name of each contesting candidate, the number of ballot papers, if any, which were treated by him as valid but had been excluded from the count by the Presiding Officer shall be taken into account, including those treated as valid from the challenged votes.

(8) The ballot papers rejected by the Returning Officer under sub-rule (4) shall be shown separately in the consolidated statement.

(9) The consolidated statement shall be so completed that the figures in respect of one polling station are completed before the incorporation of the figures in respect of any other.

(10) The Returning Officer shall deal with the postal ballot papers in the following manner namely;

- (i) no cover in Form X containing a postal ballot paper received by the Returning Officer after the expiry of the time fixed in that ballot paper shall be counted;
- (ii) the Returning Officer shall close and seal in a separate packet all the packets referred to in sub-rule (2) of rule 16;
- (iii) all other covers in Form X containing postal ballot papers shall then be opened one after another;
- (iv) as each cover is opened, the Returning Officer shall scrutinise the declaration in Form VIII contained therein and shall reject the ballot paper and make an appropriate endorsement on the cover in Form IX without opening the same—
 - (a) if the said declaration is not found in the cover Form X or
 - (b) if the said declaration is substantially defective; or
 - (c) if the serial number of the ballot paper entered in the said declaration differs from such number endorsed on the cover in Form IX;

- (v) each cover so endorsed and the declaration received with shall be replaced in the cover in Form X; and all such covers in Form X shall be kept in a separate packet which shall be sealed and on which the following particulars shall be recorded namely:—
 - (a) the name of the constituency;
 - (b) the date of counting; and
 - (c) a brief description of its contents;
- (vi) the Returning Officer shall then place all the declarations in Form VIII which he has found to be in order in a separate packet which shall be sealed before any cover in Form IX is opened and on which shall be recorded the particulars referred to in clause (v);
- (vii) all covers in Form IX containing postal ballot papers which have not already been dealt with under the foregoing provisions of this rule shall then be opened one after another and the Returning Officer shall scrutinise each ballot paper and decide the validity of the vote recorded thereby;
- (viii) a postal ballot paper shall be liable to rejection on the grounds mentioned in sub-section (4) of section 38, reference in that sub-section to prescribed mark being construed as reference to cross mark mentioned in sub-rule (1) of rule 13;
- (ix) the Returning Officer shall count all the valid votes given by postal ballot in favour of each contesting candidate and record the total thereof as well as the number polled by each such candidate in the consolidated statement in Form XVI; and
- (x) all valid postal ballot papers shall, after they have been counted, be placed in a separate packet which shall be sealed and on which shall be recorded—
 - (a) the name of the constituency;
 - (b) the date of counting; and
 - (c) a brief description of its contents.

27. Resealing of packets and statements by the Returning Officer.—(1) The packets and the statements opened by the Returning Officer for the purpose of consolidation under section 39 shall be resealed, as required by section 40, immediately after the consolidation proceedings are over.

(2) All the packets received from the Presiding Officers and not opened, together with those opened and resealed by the Returning Officer, shall be sealed in a bag for each polling station and the bag shall be duly sealed with the seal of the Returning Officer.

(3) The Returning Officer shall allow such of the contesting candidates or their election agents as may be present to sign and affix their seals to each of the packets resealed by the Returning Officer, as also the bag containing those packets.

28. Result of the count.—(1) The result of the count required to be submitted to the Commission by the Returning Officer under sub-section (1) of section 42 shall be in Form XVII.

(2) The consolidated statement prepared under sub-rule (1) of rule 26 by the Returning Officer together with the result of count referred to in sub-rule (1) shall be sent to the Commission immediately after the count for declaration of the result and publication of the name of the returned candidate in the official Gazette.

¹[28A. Submission of statement of assets and liabilities.—The statement of assets and liabilities referred to in section 42A shall be submitted in Form XXI].

29. Public inspection of documents.—(1) The documents retained by the Commission under section 44, except the ballot papers, shall be open to public inspection during office hours on payment of a fee at the rate of one rupee for each document.

(2) Copies of, or extracts from the documents mentioned in sub-rule (1) shall be furnished upon an application made by any person on payment of fee at the rate of one rupee for the first two hundred words or a fraction thereof.

(3) Every application for inspection of documents or supply of copies shall be accompanied by court-fee stamps of the requisite value.

¹[29A. Inspection of documents, etc.—(1) The Nomination Form, accompanying declaration and statements, including the statement of assets and liabilities submitted under sub-section (2) of section 12 and/or section 42A shall be open to inspection by the public, during office hours on payment of fee of rupees ten per page in the shape of court fee stamps.

(2) The copies of documents referred to in sub-rule (1) may be supplied to a person, making application in that behalf, on payment of fee of ten rupees per page in the shape of court fee stamps].

¹Inserted vide E.C.P. Notification No. S.R.O. 513(I)/2002, dated 10-8-2002.

30. Account of election expenses.—(1) A contesting candidate shall maintain or cause to be maintained a register of receipts and expenditure in Form XVIII.

(2) The contesting candidate shall, after the publication under section 20 or section 42 of the name of the returned candidate, submit to the Returning Officer an account of election expenses as required by section 50 in Form XVIII.

(3) All vouchers shall accompany the account of election expenses duly arranged according to the date of payment and serially numbered and such serial number shall be entered in the appropriate column of the relevant account.

(4) It shall not be necessary, while rendering account to the Returning Officer to give particulars of the payees in regard to the items of expenditure for which receipts are not required to be obtained under sub-section (5) of section 49.

31. Affidavit.—The affidavit referred to in sub-section (2) of section 50 shall be sworn by a candidate in Form XIX.

32. Fees for inspection of election expenses return, etc.—(1) The return and documents submitted by a contesting candidate under section 50 shall be open to public inspection at the office of the Returning Officer during office hours on payment of a fee at the rate of one rupee for each document.

(2) Copies of or extract of return or of the documents mentioned in sub-rule (1) shall be furnished upon an application made by any person on payment of a fee at the rate of one rupee for the first two hundred words or a fraction thereof and fifty paise for every additional hundred words or a fraction thereof.

(3) Every application for inspection of the return or of the documents or supply of copies thereof shall be accompanied by court-fee stamps of the requisite value.

33. Security deposit for presentation of an election petition.—The head of account for purposes of deposit as security for the costs of an election petition as required to be paid under sub-section (2) of section 52 shall be [3000000-Deposits and Reserves-B-Not Bearing Interest-3500000-Departmental and Judicial Deposits-3501000-Civil Deposits-3501010-Deposits in connection with Elections.]

THE ELECTORAL ROLLS ACT, 1974

(ACT NO. XXI OF 1974)

An act to provide for the preparation and revision of electoral rolls for elections to the National Assembly and Provincial Assemblies

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the preparation and revision of electoral rolls for elections to the National Assembly and Provincial Assemblies and for matters connected therewith and incidental thereto:

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. Short title and commencement.— (1) This Act may be called the Electoral Rolls Act, 1974.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

(3) It extends to the whole of Pakistan.

2. Definitions.— In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context.—

(1) “Commissioner” means the Chief Election Commissioner appointed under the Constitution and includes—

(i) the person continuing in the office of Chief Election Commissioner by virtue of Article 275 of the Constitution; and

(ii) a Judge of the Supreme Court nominated under Article 217 of the Constitution to act as Chief Election Commissioner.

(2) “electoral area” means—

¹(a) in rural areas, a village or a census block; and

(b) in urban areas,—

¹Substituted vide Ordinance No. IX of 2002, dated 11th February, 2002.

- (i) where there is a municipal ward or census block, such ward or census block;
 - (ii) where there is no municipal ward or a census block, a well-defined Mohallah or a street; and
 - (iii) where the ward or census block, Mohallah or street is too big, a well-defined part thereof; or.]
- (c) such other areas as may be determined by the Commissioner;
- (3) “prescribed” means prescribed by rules made under this Act;
- (4) “Registration Officer” means a Registration Officer appointed under section 5, and includes an Assistant Registration Officer performing the functions of a Registration Officer; and
- (5) “Revising Authority” means a person appointed under section 9 to hear and dispose of claims and objections and applications for correction relating to the electoral rolls.

3. Assistance to Commissioner.—(1) The Commissioner may require any person or authority to perform such function or render such assistance for the purpose of this Act, as the Commissioner may direct.

(2) All executive authorities of the Federal Government, each Provincial Government, the Federal Capital and the Federally Administered Tribal Areas shall assist the Commissioner in the performance of his functions under this Act and for this purpose the Commissioner may issue such directions as he may consider necessary.

(3) The Federal Government and each Provincial Government shall make available to the Commissioner such staff as he may require for the performance of his functions under this Act.

¹[4. Preparation and computerization of electoral rolls for election to the Assemblies.—(1) The Commissioner shall cause to be prepared the electoral rolls for election to the National Assembly and Provincial Assemblies afresh or by revising the electoral rolls existing immediately before the commencement of Electoral Rolls (Amendment) Ordinance, 2000, and revised from time to time in the prescribed manner.

¹Substituted vide Ordinance No. LI of 2000, dated 27th September, 2000.

(2) The Commissioner shall make arrangements for the computerization of the electoral rolls in the manner as he may determine and any printout of the computer maintained by, or with the authority of the Commissioner, shall be deemed to be an electoral roll published under this Act.]

5. Appointment of Registration Officer, etc.—(1) The Commissioner shall appoint a Registration Officer for an electoral area or group of electoral areas for the purpose of preparation, revision, correction and amendment of the electoral rolls and may, for that purpose, appoint as many Assistant Registration Officers as may be necessary.

(2) Subject to such instructions as may be given in this behalf by the Commissioner,—

- (a) an Assistant Registration Officer may, under the control of the Registration Officer, perform the functions of a Registration Officer; and
- (b) a Registration officer may require any person to assist him in the performance of his functions.

6. Preparation of preliminary electoral rolls, etc.—¹[(1) Subject to the superintendence, directions and control of the Commissioner, the Registration Officer shall prepare the electoral rolls by including therein the name of every person entitled to be enrolled as voter in the electoral area under this Act.]

(2) A person shall be entitled to be enrolled as a voter in an electoral area if he—

- (a) is a citizen of Pakistan;
- (b) is not less than ²[eighteen] years of age on the first day of January in the year in which the preparation or revision of the electoral rolls commences under this Act;
- (c) is not declared by a competent court to be of unsound mind; and
- (d) is, or is deemed under section 7 to be, resident in the electoral area.

7. Meaning of resident.—(1) Save as hereinafter provided, a person shall be deemed to be resident in an electoral area if he ordinarily resides, or owns or is in possession of a dwelling house or other immoveable property, in that area.

¹Substituted vide Ordinance No. LI of 2000, dated 27th September, 2000.

²Construed as "eighteen" in the light of Article 51(2)(b) of the Constitution, vide ECP Notification No F. 1(4)/2003-Law, dated 27th March, 2004.

(2) Where a person owns or possesses dwelling houses or other immovable property in more than one electoral area, he may, at his option, be enrolled in any one such area.

(3) A person who is in the service of Pakistan or holds any public office shall be deemed to be resident in the electoral area where he is posted, unless he, applies in writing to the Registration Officer for enrolment in the electoral area in which he would have been enrolled if he had not been in such service or had not held such office.

(4) The wife of any such person as is referred to in sub-section (3) and such of his children as are entitled to be enrolled shall, if they ordinarily reside with such person, be deemed to be residents in the electoral area in which such person is deemed to be resident under that sub-section.

(5) A person who is detained in prison or held in other custody at any place in Pakistan shall be deemed to be resident in the electoral area in which he would have been resident if he had not been so detained or held in such custody.

8. Preliminary publication.— The preliminary electoral rolls prepared under section 6, together with a notice inviting claims and objections and applications for corrections, if any, with respect thereto, shall be published and displayed in such manner and form as may be prescribed.

9. Appointment of Revising Authorities.— The Commissioner shall appoint a Revising Authority for any electoral area or group of electoral areas, for the purpose of receiving and deciding claims, objections and applications for corrections relating thereto.

10. Period for lodging claims and objection.— Every claim for inclusion of a name in the electoral roll, and every objection to, or application for correction of, any entry therein shall be made to the Revising Authority on the prescribed form within a period of twenty-one days ¹[or more as prescribed by the Chief Election Commissioner] next following the date of the publication of the preliminary electoral rolls under section 8.

11. Transfer of name from one electoral area to another.— A person may apply for transfer of his name from the electoral roll of one electoral area to the electoral roll of another by filing—

- (a) an objection to the inclusion of his name in the roll in which it has been included, and
- (b) a claim for the inclusion of his name in the other,

¹ Added vide Ordinance No. XXXIV of 2007, dated 3-7-2007.

With the appropriate Revising Authority or Revising Authorities, if it is preferred before the final publication of the electoral roll under section 16, or with the appropriate Registration Officer or Registration Officers, if it is preferred after such final publication.

12. Rejection of claims and objections.— Any claim or objection or application for correction not made within the period specified in section 10 or in the prescribed manner shall be rejected.

13. Application by the Registration Officer for inclusion of name.— The Registration Officer may, within the period mentioned in section 10, apply to the Revising Authority,—

- (a) for the inclusion in the electoral roll of the name of any person left out due to inadvertence or the absence of timely information while preparing the preliminary electoral rolls; or
- (b) for the exclusion of any name from the electoral roll or any correction of clerical, printing or other error which he is himself authorized to make under sub-section (2) of section 15.

14. Enquiry into claims and objections, etc.—(1) Except where a claim or objection or an application for correction is rejected under section 12, or is decided without further inquiry being valid prima facie, the Revising Authority shall, give its decision after holding a summary inquiry into each claim, objection or application, after giving notice to the parties concerned.

(2) Every decision of the Revising Authority under sub-section (1) shall be final and be communicated to the appropriate Registration officer.

15. Correction of electoral rolls.— The Registration Officer—

- (i) shall correct the electoral roll in accordance with the decisions of the Revising Authority under section 14; and
- (ii) may further correct any clerical, printing or other error subsequently discovered in the roll, but not so as to include therein, or exclude therefrom, the name of any elector.

16. Final publication.—After making additions, deletions, modifications or corrections, if any, under section 15, the Registration Officer shall publish in the prescribed manner and form the final electoral roll for each electoral area.

17. Annual revision of electoral roll.— An electoral roll shall be revised and corrected annually in the prescribed manner and form—

- (a) so as to include the name of any qualified person whose name does not appear in such roll, or
- (b) so as to delete the name of any person who has died or who is or has become disqualified for enrolment, or
- (c) for correcting any entry or for supplying any omission in such roll:

Provided that, if, for any reason, the electoral roll for any electoral area is not revised, the validity or continued operation of the electoral roll shall not thereby be affected.

18. Enrolment and correction at a time other than the annual revision.—(1) Any person whose name is not included in an electoral roll for the time being in force and who claims that he was or is entitled to be enrolled on that roll, may apply to the appropriate Registration Officer, ¹[alongwith a photostat copy of the identity card ²[issued, or deemed to have been issued, to him under the National Database and Registration Authority Ordinance, 2000 (VIII of 2000)] for the inclusion of his name therein, and if the Registration Officer is satisfied after giving such notice and making such inquiry as he may consider necessary that the applicant was or is entitled to have his name enrolled, he shall for the purpose of further correcting the roll insert the name of such person in that roll.

³[Provided that if the name of applicant is already included in the electoral roll of any other electoral area of the same district or any other district, the Registration Officer shall strike off his name from the roll of that other electoral area of the same district and inform the Registration Officer of other district who shall, on receipt of the information, strike off the name of the applicant from that roll.]

(2) Any person may apply to the Registration Officer for the correction of any entry in an electoral roll for the time being in force; and

- (a) if the entry relates to the applicant and the Registration Officer is satisfied after giving such notice and making such inquiry as he may consider necessary that the entry relates to the applicant and is erroneous or defective in any particular, he shall correct the roll accordingly; and
- (b) if the entry does not relate to the applicant and the Registration Officer is satisfied after giving notice to the person to whom the entry

¹Inserted vide Ordinance No. XX of 1982, dated 2nd September, 1982.

²Substituted vide Ordinance No. LI of 2000, dated 27th September, 2000, relates and after making such inquiry as he may consider necessary that the entry is erroneous or defective or should be deleted, he shall correct the electoral roll accordingly.

³Added ibid.

¹[(3) Where the Registration Officer rejects application made under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), he shall record in writing brief reasons of his decision.

(4) A person aggrieved by the order of the Registration Officer made under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) may, within thirty days of such order, appeal to the appellate authority to be appointed by the Commissioner and the decision of such authority given thereon shall be final.]

19. Preparation of rolls afresh.— If the Commissioner, on account of any gross error or irregularity in or in the preparation of an electoral roll for any electoral area or a part thereof, considers it necessary so to do, he may by order direct that the roll for such area or part shall stand cancelled and that a fresh electoral roll for that area or part be prepared in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

20. No correction to be made after constituency called upon to elect.— No revision or correction of any electoral roll for an electoral area shall be made nor shall any order under section 19 be made in respect of any electoral roll at any time after the constituency of which such electoral area forms part has been called upon to elect its representative and before such representative has been elected.

21. Maintenance of electoral rolls.— An electoral roll as revised and corrected shall be maintained in the prescribed manner and shall be kept open to public inspection; and copies of such roll shall be supplied to any person applying therefor, on payment of such fee as may be prescribed.

22. Departure from normal procedure in exceptional circumstances.— Where the Commissioner is satisfied that it is not possible to follow the procedure laid down for the preparation of an electoral roll in respect of any electoral area, he may direct that an electoral roll for such electoral area shall be prepared in such manner as he deems fit.

23. Duration of the electoral rolls.— The electoral roll for any electoral area prepared under this Act shall come into force immediately upon its final publication and shall remain in force until revised.

¹Added vide Ordinance No. LI of 2000, dated 27-9-2000.

24. Access to register of births and deaths, etc.—(1) The person in charge of any register of births and deaths and any authority to whom an application for registration is to be made under the ¹[National Database and Registration Authority Ordinance, 2000 (VIII of 2000)], shall at the request of a Registration Officer furnish him with such information, including extracts from such register or, as the case may be, application, as may be necessary for the proposes of this Act.

(2) Sub-section (1) shall have effect notwithstanding anything contained ¹[in section 28 of the National Database and Registration Authority Ordinance, 2000 (VIII of 2000)] and no person who furnishes any information to a Registration Officer in pursuance of the said sub-section shall be liable to any punishment.

25. No person to be enrolled more than once or in more than one electoral area.— No person shall be enrolled—

- (a) on the electoral roll for any electoral area more than once; or
- (b) on the electoral rolls for more than one electoral area.

26. Validity of electoral rolls, etc., not affected by reason of any mistake.— An electoral roll shall not be invalid by reason of any misdescription of a person enrolled thereon or of omission of the name of any person entitled to be so enrolled or of inclusion of the name of any person not so entitled.

27. Commissioner's power to include a name in an electoral roll.— Subject to section 20 the Commissioner may, at any time, order—

- (a) the inclusion in an electoral roll of the name of any person entitled to be enrolled on such electoral roll, and such name shall from the date of such order, form part of the electoral roll;
- (b) the exclusion from an electoral roll of the name of any person who has died or has become disqualified to be a voter, and such name shall, from the date of such order, stand excluded from that roll; and
- (c) the removal of the name of any person from an electoral roll where such removal becomes necessary due to the repetition of the name in the same electoral roll or in the electoral rolls of more than one electoral area.

¹Substituted vide Ordinance No. LI of 2000, dated 27th September, 2000.

28. Power to make rules.—(1) The Commissioner may, with the approval of the President and by notification in the official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

¹[(2) Where a form has been prescribed for any of the purposes of this Act or the rules made thereunder, the Commissioner may, by notification in the official Gazette, make such modifications or additions in the form as may in his opinion be necessary:

Provided that the validity of an electoral roll prepared in the prescribed form for the time being in force shall not be affected by any modification or addition made in the form subsequent to the preparation of the roll.]

²[28A. Removal of difficulties.—If any difficulty arises in giving effect to any of the provisions of this Act, the President may make such provision for the removal of the difficulty as he may deem fit.]

29. Bar of jurisdiction.—No court shall question the validity of the electoral rolls prepared or revised under this Act or the legality or propriety of any proceedings or action taken thereunder by or under the authority of the Commissioner or a Registration Officer.

³[30. Breach of official duty.—Where a Registration Officer, an Assistant Registration Officer or any other person appointed in connection with official duty under this Act, willfully or without reasonable cause, commits breach of official duty by any act or omission, the Commissioner may suspend such officer or person and initiate proceedings against him and refer the case along with statement of allegations to the Federal Government where such officer or person is serving under the Federal Government and in other cases the Provincial Government.

31. Certain offences triable by Registration Officer.— Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), the Registration Officer, if so authorized by the Commissioner in this behalf, may—

- (a) exercise the powers of a Magistrate of the first class under the said Code in respect of the offences punishable under sections 172, 173, 174, 175, 177, 178, 179, 180, 182, 186, 187, 188, 189, 191, 196, 197, 198, 199, 200, 464 and 471 of the Pakistan Penal code, 1860 (Act XLV of 1860); and

THE ELECTORAL ROLLS RULES, 1974

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Electoral Rolls Rules, 1974.

(2) They shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(1) “Act” means the Electoral Rolls Act, 1974;

(2) “Form” means a form appended to these rules and includes translation thereof into any language;

(3) “Publish” with its grammatical variations, means exhibition at a place accessible to the public; and

(4) “Section” means a section of the Act.

3. Form, language and arrangement of electoral roll.—¹[(1) The electoral roll for each electoral area shall be in Form-I and the aforesaid form shall contain the number of National Identity Card of each voter.]

(2) It shall be prepared in the National language and shall be in such parts as may be directed by the Commissioner.

(3) The Commissioner may direct that the electoral roll of any electoral area specified by him shall, in addition to the National language, be prepared in the regional language of that area.

(4) Subject to any directions issued by the Commissioner, the names enrolled in the electoral roll of each electoral area or part thereof shall be numbered serially.

4. Appointment of enumerators etc.—The Registration Officer shall, subject to the directions of the Commissioner, appoint such number of enumerators and supervisors as may be necessary for carrying out the purposes of these rules.

¹ Substituted vide SRO. 603(I)/06, dated 5-6-2006.

5. Information to be supplied by occupants of dwelling houses or owners of immovable property.—(1) The Registration Officer may, for the purpose of preparing or revising the existing electoral rolls, cause to be obtained a statement in Form II¹ [] from persons ordinarily residing, or owning or possessing a dwelling house or other immovable property, in an electoral area.

(2) Every statement referred to in sub-rule (1) shall be signed by, or bear the thumb impression of, the head of the house-hold or of any other member thereof who is eligible to be enrolled in the electoral roll.

(3) Every statement shall contain a certificate from the enumerator to the effect that the statement under sub-rule (1) was obtained after a personal visit to the house and also a certificate by the supervisor to the effect that the entries therein were verified or corrected in each statement after a house to house visit.

(4) The draft electoral roll or the list of additions to, deletions from and corrections of, the electoral roll for the time being in force for the purposes of annual revision, shall not be published until the entries in the draft roll or the roll under revision have been verified to the extent of at least 10 per cent by a house to house visit by a person other than the persons obtaining and verifying the statement.

6. Statement of certain persons holding certain offices.—(1) Any person referred to in sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) of section 7 may, before such date as may be fixed by the Commissioner, make an application in Form-III² [], for his or her enrolment to the Registration Officer of the electoral area in which he or she would have been resident if he or she were not in the service of Pakistan or the holder of a public office in another electoral area.

(2) If the Registration Officer is satisfied that the person making the application under sub-rule (1) is entitled to do so, he shall enroll as elector such person and his wife and such of his children as ordinarily reside with him in the electoral area as applied for by him.

7. Preliminary publication.—As soon as may be, after the draft electoral roll for an electoral area has been prepared, the Registration Officer shall publish it in Form-I³ [], at his office and at such other place or places accessible to the public as the Commissioner may direct, together with a notice specifying the dates within which claims, objections or applications for correction shall be filed.

8. Preliminary publication for annual revision of rolls.—For the purposes of annual revision, the Registration Officer may publish the electoral roll for an electoral area for the time being in force at his office and at such other place or places accessible to the public as the Commissioner may direct along with a list of additions to, deletions from and corrections of the electoral roll, together with a notice specifying the dates within which claims and objections shall be filed.

¹[9. Forms of claims, objections and applications.—(1) Every claim for inclusion of a name in the electoral roll ²[] shall be in Form-IV, every objection to any entry therein shall be in Form-V and every application for correction of any entry therein shall be in Form-VI

10. Manner of lodging claims and objections.—(1) A claim or objection shall be addressed to the Revising Authority of the electoral area concerned and shall either be presented to that Authority or to the Registration Officer of the electoral area or to such other officer as may be designated in that behalf by the Commissioner or be sent by post to the Revising Authority.

(2) A claim shall be signed by the person making it and shall, unless sent by post, be presented by the claimant himself or by any agent authorized by him in writing in this behalf.

(3) No person shall prefer an objection to the inclusion of any name in the electoral roll unless his name is entered in that electoral roll ³[:]; and

²[:];

³[(4) The person claiming to be enrolled in the electoral roll of an electoral area are objecting to the inclusion of any name in the electoral roll may furnish such proof along with Form-IV or Form-V as he may like to added in support of his claim or objection.]

(5) Where an objection is made to the inclusion in the electoral roll of any person whose name appears therein, such objection shall contain in respect of such person all the particulars required to be filled in the roll.

² Omitted vide ECP Notification SRO No. 603 (I)/2006, dated 5-6-2006.

(6) If any particular in any entry in the electoral roll is not correct, the person to whom the entry relates may apply to the appropriate Revising Authority for the correction thereof in Form-VI ¹];]

11. Rejection of claims and objections.—Any claim or objection not made within the period mentioned in section 10 or in the manner specified in these rules or made or presented by a person not entitled to make or present it shall be rejected.

12. Register of claims and objections.—(1) A register of claims and objections shall be maintained by every Revising Authority or officer to whom claims and objections may be presented under sub-rule (1) of rule 10.

(2) The Revising authority shall also maintain in the Register mentioned in sub-rule (1) a record of the applications for correction received by it.

(3) Except where a claim or objection or an application for correction is rejected under rule 11 or, being prima facie valid, is accepted under section 14 without further inquiry, the Revising Authority shall cause to be served—

- ²[(a) in the case of a claim, a notice in Form-IV (Part-II) on the claimant or his agent;
- (b) in the case of an objection, a notice in Form-V (Part II) on the objector and a notice in Form-V (Part-III) on the person to whom the objection relates; and
- (c) in the case of an application for correction, a notice in Form-VI (Part-II), on the applicant.]

13. Service of notice.—Every notice to be served on any person under rule 12 may be served either personally or by post.

14. Inquiry into claims and objections.—(1) On the day fixed for the purpose, the Revising Authority shall hold a summary inquiry into each claim or objection or application for correction in respect of which it has issued notice under rule 12 and shall record its decision thereon.

(2) While hearing a claim or objection or deciding an application for correction, the Revising Authority may, besides the claimant or the person objecting to any entry or the applicant for correction, hear such other person as desires to be heard in connection with the claim or objection or the application.

(3) The claimant or the person objecting to any entry or the applicant for correction or any other person who is heard under sub-rule (2) shall not be entitled to any adjournment:

Provided that the Revising Authority may, if it so desires, adjourn the case to any other date.

(4) The Revising Authority shall, after considering any verbal or written objection preferred, decide an application made under section 10 or 11, as the case may be, or an application made under section 13 by the Registration Officer.

(5) The Revising Authority shall bring to the notice of the Registration Officer for correction of any clerical, printing or other error which it discovers in the electoral roll.

15. Final Publication.—The Registration Officer shall, after making additions, deletions, modifications or corrections under section 16, publish in the manner provided in Form-I¹ [], the final electoral roll at his office and at such other place or places accessible to the public as the Commissioner may direct.

16. Preparation of electoral roll afresh.—(1) For the purposes of preparation of an electoral roll afresh under section 19, the procedure laid down for the preparation of electoral rolls shall be followed.

(2) An electoral roll as prepared afresh under sub-rule (1) shall, upon its final publication, be deemed to be the electoral roll for the electoral area concerned and shall come into force immediately on such publication.

17. Annual revision of electoral rolls.—(1) For the purpose of revising and correcting the electoral roll annually, the Registration Officer may, subject to such directions as the Commissioner may give in this behalf, prepare a list of amendments to the electoral roll of an electoral area for the time being in force and the provisions of rules 4 to 7 shall, so far as they are applicable, apply in the case of such preparation of the list in the like manner as they apply in the case of the preparation of the electoral rolls.

(2) When any such list of amendments to an electoral roll of an electoral area has been so prepared, such electoral roll for the time being in force together with said list of amendments shall be published in the like manner as provided under rule 15 and shall be deemed to be the electoral roll for that electoral area, and the provisions of rule 8 to 14, so far as they are applicable, shall apply to such rolls and to the list of amendments so prepared in the like manner as they apply in the case of original rolls:

¹[Provided that where the Commissioner is satisfied that it is not feasible to follow the procedure laid down under sub-rule (1) and sub-rule (2), he may direct that the electoral roll shall be revised in such manner as he may deem fit.]

(3) When a list of amendments is prepared for an electoral area under this rule, it shall be sufficient to print only the list of amendments and it shall not be necessary to re-print the electoral roll:

Provided that the Commissioner may, if he thinks fit, direct that the entire roll for any electoral area incorporating the amendments shall be printed as a single roll ²[:].

³[Provided further that the Commissioner may, if he thinks fit, direct that the manuscript of the list of amendments or photostat thereof, duly authenticated by the Registration Officer may be published alongwith the electoral roll.]

18. Amendment of electoral roll.—(1) When an electoral roll has been amended under section 18 by the Registration Officer, corresponding amendment shall be made in the copy of the electoral roll in his custody as well as in the copies of the roll kept at other places under rule 19.

(2) Every amendment made under this rule shall be signed by the person authorized by the Registration Officer to do so and the electoral roll in which such amendment is made shall thereupon be deemed to have been amended accordingly.

(3) Where, at any time, any clerical, printing or other error in an entry in an electoral roll for the time being in force comes to the notice of the Registration Officer, he may, on an application of the person concerned or of his own motion, after giving notice to the person to whom the entry relates, correct such error.

19. Custody and preservation of the electoral rolls.—(1) After the electoral roll for an electoral area has been finally published, the following papers shall be kept in the office of the Registration Officer and at such place or places as the Commissioner may direct for a period of one year unless their retention for a longer period is ordered by the Commissioner, namely:—

¹ Added vide SRO. 643(I)/90, dated 20-6-90.

² Substituted vide SRO. No. 1095(I)/92, dated 8-11-1992.

³ Added ibid.

- (a) ¹[one copy] of the draft electoral rolls published under rule 7 or 8;
- (b) applications made under sub-rule (1) of rule 5;
- (c) statement made under sub-rule (1) of rule 6;
- (d) claims and objections to the draft electoral roll and applications for correction of any particulars in the roll;
- (e) decisions of the Revising Authority;
- (f) applications made by the Registration Officer under section 13; and
- (g) five copies of the electoral rolls as finally published under rule 15.

(2) Copies of the electoral rolls published under rule 15 for any electoral area in excess of the number required for preservation under sub-rule (1) shall be deposited in such place as the Commissioner may direct and the copies of the electoral roll so deposited shall be available for sale to any person making an application to that effect and at the rate of ²[two rupees] per page of the electoral roll.

In Rule 19, [2A] shall be omitted;

~~⁴(2A) The copies of electoral rolls shall be available for sale to any person, upon an application made in that behalf, on CDs or DVDs at the rate of two hundred rupees per CD or DVD.]~~

(3) The papers referred to in sub-rule (1) and the copies of the rolls deposited under sub-rule (2) may be disposed of, when no longer needed, in such manner as the Commissioner may direct.

(4) Every person shall have the right to inspect during office hours the documents referred to in sub-rule (1) and to obtain attested copies thereof on payment of the following fees:—

- (a) ³[Five rupees] for inspection of each document; and
- (b) ³[Five rupees] for supply of copy for the first two hundred words or less and ³[two rupees] for every additional one hundred words or fraction thereof.

(5) Every application for inspection of documents or supply of copies shall be accompanied by court fee stamps of the requisite value.

THE DELIMITATION OF CONSTITUENCIES ACT, 1974

(ACT No. XXXIV OF 1974)

An act to provide for the delimitation of constituencies for elections to the National Assembly and the Provincial Assemblies

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the delimitation of constituencies for elections to the National Assembly and the Provincial Assemblies and for matters connected therewith or ancillary thereto:

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. Short title and commencement.— (1) This Act may be called the Delimitation of Constituencies Act, 1974.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions.— In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context—

(a) “Article” means Article of the Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan hereinafter referred to as the Constitution;

(b) “Commission” means the Election Commission constituted under Article 218.

(c) “population” means the population in accordance with the ¹[last preceding] census officially published; and

(d) all words and expressions used but not defined in this Act shall have the same meaning as in the Constitution.

3. Commission to delimit constituencies.— The Commission shall delimit territorial constituencies for elections to the National Assembly and to each Provincial Assembly in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution and this Act.

4. Procedure of Commission.— (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, the Commission shall regulate its own procedure.

¹Substituted vide Act No. III of 1989, dated 11-2-89.

(2) If, upon any matter requiring the decision of the Commission, there is difference of opinion amongst its members, the opinion of the majority shall prevail and the decision of the Commission shall be expressed in terms of the opinion of the majority.

(3) The Commission may exercise its powers and performs its functions notwithstanding that there is a vacancy in the office of any one of its members or that any one of its members is, for any reason, unable to attend its proceedings and the decision of at least three members shall have the effect of the decision of the Commission:

Provided that where the members attending the proceedings of the Commission are equally divided in their opinion,—

- (a) if the Chairman is one of the members attending, his opinion shall prevail and the decision of the Commission shall be expressed in terms of that opinion; and
- (b) in the other case, the matter shall be placed for decision before the Commission.

5. Delegation of powers, etc.— (1) The Commission may authorize one or more of its members, acting singly or together, to exercise and perform all or any of its powers and functions under this Act.

- (2) Where two or more members are authorized under sub-section (1),—
 - (a) their decision shall be expressed in terms of the opinion of the majority; or
 - (b) if they are equally divided, the matter shall be placed before the Commission.

6. Assistance to the Commission.—(1) The Commission may require any person or authority to perform such functions or render such assistance for the purposes of this Act as it may direct.

(2) All executive authorities of the Federal Government and each Provincial Government shall assist the Commission in the performance of its functions and for this purpose the Commission may issue such directions as it may consider necessary.

7. Allocation of seats in the National Assembly.—(1) On the basis of population, the seats in the National Assembly for each Province, the Federally Administered Tribal Areas and the Federal Capital are allocated as set out in the Table below:—

S. No.	Province/Area	General seats	Women seats	Total
1.	The North-West Frontier Province	35	08	43
2.	Federally Administered Tribal Areas	12	—	12
3.	Federal Capital	02	—	02
4.	The Punjab	148	35	183
5.	Sindh	61	14	75
6.	Baluchistan	14	03	17
Total :		272	60	332

Provided that in addition to the number of seats referred in the above table there shall be in the National Assembly ten seats reserved for non-Muslims as defined in Article 260 of the Constitution.

²[(2) The seats allocated under sub-section (1) shall be reallocated after each succeeding census.]

8. Delimitation of Constituencies.—(1) For the purpose of election to the National Assembly, the Commission shall divide—

- (a) each Province into as many separate territorial constituencies as the number of general seats allocated to that Province under section 7; and
- (b) the Federally Administered Tribal Areas and the Federal Capital into as many territorial constituencies as the number of general seats respectively allocated to the said Areas and the Federal Capital under section 7.

(2) The constituencies for the seats reserved for women in the National Assembly shall be such that each Province forms one constituency with as many such seats as are allocated to that Province under section 7.

(3) The constituency for all seats reserved for non-Muslims in the National Assembly under clause (2A) of Article 51 shall be the whole country.

(4) For the purpose of election to Provincial Assemblies, the Commission shall divide each Province into as many separate territorial constituencies as the number of general seats provided under clause (I) of Article 106.

(5) The constituencies for the seats reserved for women and non-Muslims in the Provincial Assemblies shall be such that each Province forms one constituency with as many such seats as are allocated to that Province under clause (1) of Article 106.

9. Principles of delimitation.—(1) All constituencies for general seats shall, as far as practicable, be delimited having regard to the distribution of population in geographically compact areas, existing boundaries of administrative units, facilities of communication and public convenience and other cognate factors to ensure homogeneity in the creation of constituencies:

Provided that for the purpose of delimiting constituencies for the general seats for the Federally Administered Tribal Areas two or more separate areas may be grouped into one constituency.

(2) As far as may be the constituencies for election to the same Assembly shall be equal among themselves in population.

10. Reports of Commission and list of constituencies.—(1) For the purpose of delimiting constituencies, the Commission may receive and consider representations, hold inquiries, summon witnesses and record evidence, and shall prepare and publish in the official Gazette a preliminary report and list of constituencies specifying the areas proposed to be included in each constituency.

(2) Any person entitled to vote at an election to the National Assembly or a Provincial Assembly may, within ¹[fifteen] days of the publication of the report under sub-section (1), make a representation to the Commission in respect of the delimitation of constituencies.

(3) The Commission shall, after hearing and considering the representations, if any, received by it, make such amendments, alterations or modifications, in the preliminary list published under sub-section (1) as it thinks fit or necessary, and shall publish in the official Gazette the final report and list of constituencies showing the areas included in each constituency.

¹[10A. Power of Commission to make amendment, alteration or modification in the final list of constituencies.—Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the Commission may, at any time, of its own motion, make such amendments, alterations or modifications in the final list of constituencies published under sub-section (3) or in the areas included in a constituency, as it thinks necessary.

10B. Removal of difficulties.—If any difficulty arises in giving effect to any of the provisions of this ¹[Act] the President may make such provision for the removal of the difficulty as he may deem fit.]

11. Bar of jurisdiction.—The validity of the delimitation of any constituency, or of any proceedings taken or anything done by or under the authority of the Commission, under this Act shall not be called in question in any court.

¹Substituted vide Act No. III of 1989, dated 11-2-89.
